

Summary

Runaway Ralph is the second book in the trilogy of Ralph S. Mouse stories by Beverly Cleary. Cleary wrote over 40 books for children and won numerous awards, including the Newbery medal for three different books. Originally published in 1970, Runaway Ralph won the Honor Award from the Hawaii Literary Association in 1972. In 1988, a two-part miniseries of the book aired on ABC, earning Emmy nominations. Runaway Ralph features Ralph S. Mouse, the protagonist of the other two Mouse and the Motorcycle books, as he sets out for adventure to the Happy Acres Summer Camp on his mouse-sized motorcycle. In his adventures, he meets a camp guard dog, a dangerous cat, and a grumpy hamster, who all add to his growing understanding of the world. The anthropomorphic talking animals underscore the limited fantasy nature of all three novels. During his stay at the camp, he learns about empathy, independence, and the risks of adventure while developing a friendship with Garf—a young boy who struggles to fit in with the other kids.

This guide references the 2006 Harper Trophy paperback edition.

Plot Summary

The novel begins in the Mountain View Inn, where Ralph S. Mouse waits for evening so he can ride his motorcycle through all the nooks and crannies of the hotel. When Garfield R. Jemigan (Garf) comes in with his parents, Ralph learns that the music he hears every day is the bugle from a nearby summer camp. While riding his mouse-sized motorcycle through the hotel bar and lobby, his Uncle Lester and his mother intervene and insist he give his younger siblings and cousins a turn on the motorcycle. Ralph gets more and more frustrated with his parental figures' rules. At the end of the night, when the camp bugle plays the wake-up tune, Ralph decides to run away to the summer camp.

The next night, Ralph prepares to leave, explaining to Matt, the older bellboy at the hotel, that he needs his independence. Matt empathizes with Ralph and says he would love to ride a motorcycle, too. However, Matt refuses to help Ralph off the hotel steps. Matt points out that independence means doing things on your own. Ralph is, again, frustrated by the older generation but figures out a way down. He rides his motorcycle on the highway all the way to Happy Acres Camp. At the camp entrance, he meets Sam, the camp guard dog, who won't let him enter. He hides from Sam in a gopher hole and sneaks into the camp later. Ralph naps in
