 Contagions the ever popular atomic bomb sometimes even a combination of these in the same movie Armageddon Films FAQ goes from the silent days of filmmaking to the most recent literally earth shattering epics from cinema to television and even the novels from comedies to dramas from supernatural to scientific It also explores other aspects of the genre such as iconic but unfilmable apocalyptic novels postnuclear car racing flicks domestic dramas disguised as end of the world actioners and more from the most depressing to the happiest Armageddons ever Transrealist Fiction Damien Broderick,2000-06-30 Transrealist writing treats immediate perceptions in a fantastic way according to science fiction writer and mathematician Rudy Rucker who originated the term In the expanded sense argued in this book it also intensifies imaginative fiction by writing the fantastic from the standpoint of richly personalized experience Transrealism is also related to slipstream writing another category introduced into studies of speculative fiction to account for texts that seem to follow trajectories mapped by the huge body of science fiction accumulated in the last century while retaining a central interest in traditional literary strategies This book examines a variety of work from the transrealist perspective something that has not been done previously It emphasizes the texts of Philip K Dick and Rucker himself while it additionally engages the texts of such slipstream writers as Kurt Vonnegut J G Ballard and John Barth It places its argument against the antihumanist trend in science fiction and builds comparisons with more traditional varieties of science fiction works Corresponding Sense Brook W.R. Pearson,2021-10-01 Corresponding Sense represents a turning point in the application of hermeneutics to New Testament texts Following the example of Hans Georg Gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics Pearson treats several different problems in New Testament interpretation centred around the figure of Paul In so doing he demonstrates how a dialogical approach to the interpretation of ancient texts functions pragmatically to allow for a deeper understanding not only of individual texts but also of their siting with the larger dialectical web of the texts and contexts of the ancient world This approach developed here in connection with the New Testament also has relevance to other literature In Corresponding Sense Pearson outlines what he calls a dialectical topography the tracing of connections and disjunctions between texts and their subject matter both within and outside of the New Testament He uses both theoretical and practical discussion to demonstrate this approach showing how it functions as a new way of approaching a Paul who is a member of a much larger community than simply the Judaism of his fathers a Paul who participates in cultural narratives which extend throughout not only earliest Christianity but also into the wider thought world of the Roman Empire True Stories Francis Spufford,2017-10-03 An irresistible collection of favorite writings from an author celebrated for his bravura style and sheer unpredictability Francis Spufford s welcome first volume of collected essays gathers an array of his compelling writings from the 1990s to the present He makes use of a variety of encounters with particular places writers or books to address deeper questions relating to the complicated relationship between story telling and truth telling How must a nonfiction writer imagine facts vivifying them to bring them to life How must a novelist create a dependable world of story within which facts are in fact imaginary And how does a religious faith felt strongly to be true but not provably so draw on both kinds of writerly imagination Ranging freely across topics as diverse as the medieval legends of Cockaigne the Christian apologetics of C S Lewis and the tomb of Ayatollah Khomeini Spufford provides both fresh observations and thought provoking insights No less does he inspire an irresistible urge to turn the page and read on
