Salt A Novel By Earl Lovelace:

Salt Earl Lovelace, 1996 Set in Trinidad multiple voices tell the story of this country which is struggling to reconcile the roles of landowner and slave in a future of freedom for all Critical Voicings of Black Liberation Kimberley Louise Phillips, 2003 The contributions to Critical Voices of Black Liberation in the Americas originated from the 1999 CAAR Conference in Munster and from conferences held in the US in 2000 and 2001 More than half of the eleven essays consider black performances on stage in sound and on film the remaining essays explore slavery African American literature and nineteenth century black educators These exciting essays creatively examine artistic and or political articulation of black liberation as the construction of a new critical and signifying voice This liberated and critical voice asserts itself as much as a communal expression of black subjectivities as it is an articulation of the black self Radical Narratives of the Black Atlantic Alan Rice, 2003-04-30 Broad based survey of trans Atlantic black culture Newest book in the popular Black Atlantic series Radical Narratives of the Black Atlantic is a multi faceted and interdisciplinary take on trans Atlantic black culture Alan Rice engages fully with Paul Gilroy s paradigm of the Black Atlantic through examination of a broad array of cultural genres including music dance folklore and oral literature fine art material culture film and literature The aspects of black culture under discussion range from black British gravesites to sea shanties from the novels of Toni Morrison to the paintings of the Zanzibar born black British artist Lubaina Himid and from King Kong to the travels of Frederick Douglass and Paul Robeson The book places such figures as the African American traveller and Barbary slave narrator Robert Adams and the West Indian slave narrator Mary Prince in a Black Atlantic context that explicates them fully A chapter on the Titanic disaster shows how diasporan Africans composed oral poems about the disaster to criticise the discriminatory practices of its owners and racial imperialism Overall the book argues for the crucial importance of Black Atlantic cultures in the formation of our modern world Moreover it argues that looking at Black culture and history through a national lens is distorting and reductive

Legba's Crossing Heather Russell, Katherine Clay Bassard, 2011-05-01 In Haiti Papa Legba is the spirit whose permission must be sought to communicate with the spirit world He stands at and for the crossroads of language interpretation and form and is considered to be like the voice of a god In Legba s Crossing Heather Russell examines how writers from the United States and the anglophone Caribbean challenge conventional Western narratives through innovative use disruption and reconfiguration of form Russell s in depth analysis of the work of James Weldon Johnson Audre Lorde Michelle Cliff Earl Lovelace and John Edgar Wideman is framed in light of the West African aesthetic principle of she a quality ascribed to art that transcends the prescribed boundaries of form she is linked to the characteristics of improvisation and flexibility that are central to jazz and other art forms Russell argues that African Atlantic writers self consciously and self reflexively manipulate dominant forms that prescribe a certain trajectory of for example enlightenment civilization or progress She connects this seemingly postmodern meta analysis to much older West African philosophy and its African Atlantic iterations which she calls the Legba Principle Sucking Salt Meredith Gadsby, 2006 Examines the literature of black Caribbean emigrant and island women including Dorothea Smartt Edwidge Danticat Paule Marshall and others who use the terminology and imagery of sucking salt as an articulation of a New World voice connoting adaptation improvisation and creativity offering a new understanding of diaspora literature and feminism Provided by publisher Clear Word and Third Sight Catherine A. Ex-centric Writing Annalisa Pes, Susanna Zinato, 2014-10-16 The concern with identity and belonging with place displacement is a major feature of postcolonial literature and the theme of alienation cannot but be topical in the literatures of the countries that have experienced the cultural shock and bereavement and the physical and psychic trauma of colonial invasion The purpose of this volume is to qualify the difference one is faced with when a postcolonial ex-centric text is addressed by collecting essays concerned with writers from Southern Africa the Caribbean Australia the Indian subcontinent and Asian diaspora s While giving contextual specifics their due it shows how the theme of alienation when perceived through the anamorphic lens of madness is magnified and charged with an excruciatingly questioning and destabilizing power laying bare political as well as existential and moral urges From the ex-centric broadly exilic position it is the ideology and practice of colonialism that demand to be rubricated as psychopathology More broadly as these essays highlight in fiction the mad character s ex-centric vision is a continuous warning against the temptation to believe in those discourses that pass themselves off as reflecting the given natural order of things
