Fools for Love Helen Schulman, 2025-07-08 A virtuosic laugh out loud collection of stories that explore the fraught and fantastic nature of human connection featuring women men various couples and one terribly precocious baby enmeshed in tangled romances of all shapes and sizes The wide ranging and inventive stories that make up Helen Schulman's Fools for Love are funny sexy sometimes sad and always surprising A single American mother and a French Orthodox rabbi fall in love over poetry as she helps to dismantle a shuttered bookstore in Paris A rebellious young woman marries a series of men who are all wrong for her and proceeds to cheat on each of them her widowed mother finds her deceased husband's sex diaries and decides she needs to make up for lost time And in the title story a blossoming East Village playwright realizes that her marriage to a brilliant actor is doomed after watching his performance in an alternative production of Sam Shepard's iconic play Characters wander in and out of one another's stories and beds in these hilarious tales of lust and attachment a rollicking feast of love and loss that is not unlike the experience of life itself Fools for Love is a vital addition to Schulman's acclaimed body of work a collection that showcases at every turn what Katie Kitamura has referred to as her sharp observation buoyant wit and unfailing empathy

The Lost Decade Chris Horn, 2023-10-19 Provides an analysis of Hollywood from a fresh viewpoint that shows the careers of Robert Altman Francis Coppola William Friedkin and others in the 1980s as far from conforming to a monolithic pattern of decline but rather as diverse and complex responses to political and industrial changes The 1980s are routinely seen as the era of the blockbuster and of Reaganite entertainment whereas the dominant view of late 1960s and early 1970s American film history is that of a Hollywood Renaissance a relatively brief window of artistry based around a select group of directors Yet key directors associated with the Renaissance period remained active throughout the 1980s and their work has been obscured or dismissed by a narrow singular model of American film history This book deals with industrial contexts that conditioned these directors' ability to work creatively but it is also very much about the analysis of individual films bringing to light a range of unheralded work from the visual experimentation of One from the Heart Coppola 1981 to the experimental production contexts of Secret Honor Altman 1984 and the stylistic lull of To Live and Die in L.A. Friedkin 1985 Behind the homogenous picture of the decline of the auteur in 1980s American cinema are films and careers that merit greater attention and this book offers a new way to perceive individual films American film history and the viability of sustained authorial creativity within post studio era Hollywood

The Theatre of Sam Shepard Stephen J. Bottoms, 1998 This comprehensive analysis traces Sam Shepard's career from his experimental one act plays of the 1960s to the 1994 play Simpatico Curse of the Starving Class Buried Child True West Fool for Love and A Lie of the Mind are all examined in depth
