

Transcript of a Speech from the Closing Ceremony of the XV International AIDS Conference (AIDS 2004)

By Nelson Mandela
From Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation

July 16, 2004

Thank you again for asking me to participate in the closing ceremony of your International AIDS Conference. It seems that I have reached a level of seniority, which entitles me to participate in closing ceremonies. Despite the fact that I am an old age pensioner with no power and with even less influence, as you will know I have announced my retirement from public life, which means that I should not be here today. However, the fight against AIDS is one of the greatest challenges the world faces at the start of the 21st century. I cannot rest until I'm certain that the global response is sufficient to turn the tide of the epidemic. The importance of tackling this issue should not be undermined by the many other problems that confront a global society today. In the course of human history there has never been a greater threat than the HIV/AIDS epidemic. Our attention to this issue cannot be distracted or diverted by problems that are apparently more pressing. History will surely judge us harshly if we do not respond with all the energy and resources that we can bring to bear in the fight against HIV/AIDS. Last night we introduced you to our 46664 sexual campaign. We reminded you how they are [Inaudible] to reduce us to prison numbers and so reduce our humanity. We were kept alive by our strong sense of hope and the firm knowledge that the world would not forget us.
