Constitutional Argument and Institutional Structure in the United States Nicholas

Papaspyrou, 2018-03-22 US constitutional jurisprudence often conflates two distinct enquiries how to interpret the Constitution and how to allocate interpretive authority This book explains the distinct role of judgements about interpretive authority in constitutional practice It argues that these judgements do not determine what qualifies as good constitutional argument and cannot substitute for it Rather they specify the division of labour between the political branches and the judiciary in forming applicable constitutional determinations This explanation of the structure of constitutional reasoning sets the stage for the development of a normative theory about each enquiry The book advances a theory of substantive constitutional argument It argues that constitutional interpretation is a special kind of practical reasoning aiming to construct and specify morally sound accounts of the Constitution and surrounding constitutional practice Yet this task is entrusted to a scheme of institutions as agents of free and equal citizens The standard of review is an interlocking component of that scheme regulating the judicial assignment As such it should aim to facilitate best performance of the overall interpretive task so that the judicial process settles on appropriate constitutional determinations grounded on morally sound reasons that reach all citizens and uphold the fundamental commitments to freedom and equal citizenship

The Continuity of Legal Systems in Theory and Practice Benjamin Spagnolo, 2015-10-22 The Continuity of Legal Systems in Theory and Practice examines a persistent and fascinating question about the continuity of legal systems when is a legal system existing at one time the same legal system that exists at another time The book's distinctive approach to this question is to combine abstract critical analysis of two of the most developed theories of legal systems those of Hans Kelsen and Joseph Raz with an evaluation of their capacity in practice to explain the facts attitudes and normative standards for which they purport to account That evaluation is undertaken by reference to Australian constitutional law and history whose diverse and complex phenomena make it particularly apt for evaluating the theories explanatory power In testing whether the depiction of Australian law presented by each theory achieves an adequate fit with historical facts the book also contributes to the understanding of Australian law and legal systems between 1788 and 2001 By collating the relevant Australian materials systematically for the first time it presents the case for reconceptualising the role of Imperial laws and institutions during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and clarifies the interrelationship between Colonial State Commonwealth and is due to the reality that of prime concern in EU external relations is the question of who decides By engaging a number of legal themes that cut across foreign affairs exceptionalism executive prerogatives parliamentary accountability judicial review and the constitutionalisation of European integration the book lays bare how EU foreign affairs have become highly legalised leading to ever greater coherence in how Europe exerts itself on the global stage In this first monograph dedicated exclusively to the law of the EU s Common Foreign and Security Policy in modern times the author argues that the legal framework for EU foreign affairs must adapt in a changing world so as to ensure the EU treaties can cater for a more assertive Europe in the wider world Cited in Opinion of Advocate General Evgeni Tanchev Case C 730 18 P SC v Eulex Kosovo ECLI EU C 2020 176 Court of Justice of the European Union First Chamber 5 March 2020 Opinion of Advocate General Gerard Hogan Case C 134 19 P Bank Refah Kargaran v Council of the European Union ECLI EU C 2020 396 Court of Justice of the European Union Grand Chamber 28 May 2020 Opinion of Advocate General Evgeni Tanchev Case C 283 20 CO ME GC and 42 Others v MJ Head of Mission European Commission European External Action Service EEAS Council of the European Union Eulex Kosovo ECLI EU C 2021 781 Court of Justice of the European Union Fifth Chamber 30 September 2021 and Opinion of Advocate General Tamara Capeta in Joined Cases C 29 22 P and C 44 22 P KS KD v Council of the European Union European Commission and European External Action Service EEAS and European Commission v KS KD Council of the European Union and European External Action Service EEAS ECLI EU C 2023 901 Court of Justice of the European Union Grand Chamber 23 November 2023
