Five Levers to Improve Learning Tony Frontier,James Rickabaugh,2014-01-08 Why have decades of school reform had so little measurable effect on student achievement Why have billions of dollars spent on technology small school initiatives and school choice options failed to improve our schools Too often educators are simply pulling the wrong levers say Tony Frontier and James Rickabaugh They explain that the various components of schooling fall into five categories structure sample standards strategy and self Understanding how these five levers work and their relative power can help unlock the potential for lasting improvements in teaching and learning The authors show readers that changes to structure and sample how schools are organized and how students are grouped will not be effective without changes to standards expectations for student learning strategy instructional strategies to engage students in meaningful learning and self the set of beliefs teachers and students have about their capacity to be effective At the heart of this book is a simple message for teachers administrators board members and education policymakers at all levels the key to success is not doing more work and making more changes but doing the right work and making the right changes

A Rhetoric of Doing Stephen Paul Witte,Neil Nakadate,Roger Dennis Cherry,1992 Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry exploration and application and in doing so reflect James L Kinneavy s firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading edge theorists researchers and teachers of writing and rhetoric A field context for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts on dimensions of discourse theory aspects of discourse communities and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts on writing in school related contexts and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy s work The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are in fact doing
