"WE ARE DESTINED FOR GREATNESS"

Chief Guest, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellors Principals of Colleges, Deans, Directors, our beloved teachers, parents my colleague graduands and all protocols observed; Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen. Good morning!

I am humbled to address such a wonderful gathering here today – all under the umbrella of cherishing success. History brings us here through a long winding trip that can only be defined by the faithful as a miracle. It is a miracle to those of us who only witnessed others rewarded but never thought about the dawn of our day. Now it is our turn. Our turn to take those powers to read and do all that appertains to the degree.

On behalf of my colleague graduands, I hereby extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all of you who gave us this opportunity. You have proved to us that indeed hard work pays.

To our parents, thank you for understanding that the only inheritance you could dedicate to us was this education. We promised never to let you down and today you can attest to this. We did that and we have successfully completed our task. To God be all the glory.

Miller, 1924 My Journey Ethel Hall, 2010-01-01 In this wise introspective and touching memoir Dr Ethel Hall recounts the little journeys throughout her life which prepared her to become the first African American woman elected to the Alabama State Board of Education Her experiences with racial tension discrimination and poverty are interspersed with portraits of the family and love which transformed her from a farmers daughter determined to achieve the higher education others thought to be impossible to a dedicated mother and educator and even further to a statewide political leader Dr Hall also provides a detailed account of the problems faced both solved and unsolved during her more than two decades of service to the Alabama State Board of Education Despite the difficulties she faced Dr Halls stories are filled with faith and hope leaving the reader with memorable anecdotes for their own hardships The Police Journal , 1927 Yale Alumni Weekly , 1921

The Yale Alumni Weekly , 1921 Who We Met on the Way to Stanford Richard P. Sinay, 2024-08-09 In the fall of 2000 my son began attending Stanford on a golf scholarship It was a long and challenging road to achieve this goal When he learned about the college he went around the house with his Stanford sweatshirt and seldom took it off After winning the San Diego Junior World Golf Championship he was an accomplished junior golfer Stanford s coach at the time was Wally Goodwin an excellent cheerful fellow who was also Tiger Woods s coach Wally had seen the best golfers at Stanford so he was a coach who knew what he wanted in a player He started following my son after this victory at the San Diego tournament and around the time he received a letter asking Wally if he would come to watch him play golf Wally did he was there often to oversee this young man s development and golf As a father I took my son to many golf tournaments He was a joy to watch and did well as a junior golfer through high school He even had the accomplishment of replacing Tiger Woods scoring record Tiger s best score for the high school championships in Southern California was 66 but my son managed to shoot a 65 in his junior year in high school against players from five hundred and eighty six schools and other high schools Many other delightful moments were watching my son play and good times I will not forget One day while reading through some of my writings I came across some notes my son had sent me about appealing the dismissal of his scholarship Reading the notes almost seventeen years later was a revelation to me I was unaware of the time frames at the time of the essence of this story so I investigated the information further What I discovered became the basis of this book There were weeks of struggling with the time frames and difficulties understanding what happened in the struggle at Stanford The book is my way of putting together what I discovered What I found to be mostly true but not having been there myself I may not even know half the story Nevertheless this is my memoir of what it was like raising a kid with extraordinary talent playing golf and what happened when he arrived at Stanford to fulfill his obligation for the scholarship he received Ebony ,1965-07 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Bulletin ,1920 A Teacher's Cry Lewis W.
