

The background of the entire graphic is a soft-focus image of autumn foliage. In the upper left, there are dark brown branches with small, round, dark berries. Scattered throughout are various maple leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and red. The central text is set against a light blue, torn-edge paper background. At the bottom right, a dark green leaf-like shape contains the date and time in yellow text. A single yellow sunflower is positioned between the quote and the date.

Docherty,2011-11-01 Legislatures and the men and women who serve in them form the very heart of Canadian democracy After all with the very rare exception of nationwide referendums Canadians speak collectively only when voting for the people who will be representing their interests in Ottawa The same is true provincially But how democratic are legislative assemblies in Canada After we elect our representatives are we comfortable that we are being properly and democratically represented Apparently not respect for legislatures and legislators in Canada has steadily declined and this perception is only aggravated by the current political climate Legislatures provides a democratic audit of Canada's provincial and national representative assemblies It argues that the problem existing in these bodies is not a lack of talent so much as a lack of institutional freedom Specifically the problem is largely one of resources and rules The move to a more multi party system nationally and the increasing tendency to downsize provincial assemblies has placed additional hurdles in the path to good governance Docherty uses the series criteria of responsiveness inclusiveness and participation to evaluate critically the performance of legislatures in Canada and makes recommendations for legislative reform in Canada A crucial and timely overview of legislatures this book will appeal to students and scholars of Canadian politics as well as politicians and policymakers and anyone interested in the current state of Canadian democracy Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith,1904 Anniversary General Conference of the Congregational Churches in Maine,1883 The International Pentecostal Holiness Advocate ,1993
