Transformation Literacy Petra Künkel, Kristin Vala Ragnarsdottir, 2022-03-02 This open access book brings science and practice together and inspires a global movement towards co creating regenerative civilizations that work for 100% of humanity and the Earth as a whole With its conceptual foundation of the concept of transformation literacy it enhances the knowledge and capacity of decision makers change agents and institutional actors to steward transformations effectively across institutions societal sectors and nations Humanity is at crossroads Resource depletion and exponential emissions that not only cause climate change but endanger the health of people and planet call for a decisive turnaround of human civilization A new and transformative paradigm is emerging that advocates for regenerative civilizations in which a narrative of systemic health as much as individual and collective vitality guide the interaction of socio economic ecological systems

Truly transformative change must go far beyond technical solutions and instead envision what can be termed a new operating system that helps humankind to live well within the planetary boundaries and partner with life's evolutionary processes. This requires transformations at three different levels: Mindsets that reconnect with a worldview in which human agency acknowledges its co-evolutionary pathways with each other and the Earth; Political, social and economic systems that are regenerative and foster the care-taking for Earth life support systems; Competencies to design and implement effective large-scale transformative change processes at multiple levels with multiple stakeholders. This book provides key ingredients for enhancing transformation literacy from various perspectives around the globe. It connects the emerging practice of stewarding transformative change across business, government institutions and civil society actors with the most promising scientific models and concepts that underpin human action to shape the future collectively in accordance with planetary needs.

Gluten-Related Disorders Mohammad Rostami-Nejad, 2021-09-19. Gluten-related disorders are prevalent worldwide, especially in developing countries. These diseases have similar clinical manifestations. Although they are characterized by a specific pathophysiological response to ingestion of gluten, differential diagnosis of these disorders is very challenging. Failure to diagnose and treat these disorders at an early stage can lead to irreparable health and cost damages. Gluten-Related Disorders: Diagnostic Approaches, Treatment Pathways and Future Perspectives solves this problem by reporting up-to-date scientific findings that allow for faster, more accurate diagnosis of gluten-related disorders as well as guidance on treatment options. By identifying the distinctive features of each of the gluten-related disorders, the chapters lead readers to optimal diagnosis and treatment options as well as better research designs for future research studies on the pathogenesis of these disorders. This reference provided by experts in the field is perfect for researchers, scientists and medical practitioners who are involved in addressing gluten-related disorders. Provides a comprehensive overview on all aspects of gluten-related disorders incorporating many up-to-date scientific findings. Highlights the differences and overlaps in clinical presentations of gluten-related disorders in order to aid differential diagnosis. Presents the current understanding of the pathogenesis of gluten-related disorders which can be used to inform future research endeavors.

Dissolving Master Narratives Laura Doyle, Simon Gikandi, Mwangi wa Githinji, 2025-04-10. Dissolving Master Narratives comprises one volume in an unprecedented three-volume set collectively subtitled Decolonial Reconstellations Together with Volume One Dynamics of Deep Time and Deep Place and Volume Three Reconceiving Identities in Political Economy. It gathers thinkers from across world regions and disciplines who reconfigure critical global thought. Collaboratively conceived, the volumes are founded on the observation that we cannot fully uproot the epistemological material violence of coercive systems nor fully re-imagine more ethical visions of planetary community without shared attention to the deeper histories of place and peoples that shape the present. Accordingly, the volumes gather social scientists and humanists, Indigenous and non-Indigenous scholars, and intersectional and materialist thinkers who reconceptualize long-due history and its afterlives. They engage in the dual project to dismantle eurocentric colonial androcentric frameworks and to make visible the legacies of care and creative world-making that have sustained human communities. Uncovering pasts that are as complex and dynamic as the present, the contributors brilliantly transform notions of temporality, relationality, polity, conjuncture, resistance, and experimentation within histories of struggle and alliance. They richly decolonize political imaginaries. The co-editors' introductions articulate fresh frameworks of deep place and deep time, freed from eurocentric modernity paradigms, indicating pathways toward decolonial collaboration and institutional change. Decolonial Reconstellations offers invaluable resources for researchers and teachers in decolonial, postcolonial, anti-colonial, and Indigenous studies and will also strongly appeal to feminist, anti-racist, Marxist, and critical theory scholars across disciplines.

The Palgrave International Handbook of Action Research Lonnie L. Rowell, Catherine D. Bruce, Joseph M. Shosh, Margaret M. Riel, 2016-10-26. The Palgrave International Handbook of Action Research offers a vivid portrait of both theoretical perspectives and practical action research activity and related benefits around the globe while attending to the cultural, political, social, historical, and ecological contexts that localize, shape, and characterize action research. Consisting of teachers, youth workers, counselors, nurses, community developers, artists, ecologists, farmers, settlement dwellers, students, professors, and intellectual activists on every continent and at every edge of the globe, the movement sustained and inspired by this community was born of the efforts of intellectual activists in the mid-twentieth century, specifically Orlando Fals Borda, Paulo Freire, Myles Horton, Kurt Lewin. Cross-national issues of networking, as well as the challenges, tensions, and issues associated with the transformative power of action research, are explored from multiple perspectives, providing unique contributions to our understanding of what it means to do action research and to be an action researcher. This handbook sets a global action research agenda and map for readers to consider as they embark on new projects.

Songlines of the Soul Veronica Goodchild, 2012-10-01. The title for this book comes from the ancient Aboriginal concept of song lines: pathways to another world reached through dreamtime and visionary insight and encounters with the unknown realm of experience. Veronica Goodchild addresses how dreams, synchronicities, UFO/ET encounters, Crop Circle mysteries, and NDEs all point to the new unfolding vision of reality. She draws on ancient mystery traditions to explore how this metamorphosis is already reflected cross-culturally in Hopi, Aztec, Mayan, Hindu, Tibetan, Maori, Zulu, Dogon, and Egyptian cultures. Songlines of the Soul proposes a new paradigm of reality, a new worldview. The signatures of this new reality are arising both in our own experiences and all around us if only we can stretch wide our stubbornly held perceptions of what is reality. As we stand at a crucial turning point in our human history, this book offers hope a call to awaken and expand our perceptions of the fundamental principles that orchestrate reality In an age when the answers offered by governments and traditional religion are no longer sufficient the quest for meaning must as it always has in the past arise first through visions dreams and journeys to other dimensions of consciousness Biopolymer

Philosophy of Sport and Physical Education: From Ancient Civilizations to the Modern World Robert A. Mechikoff,2010 This engaging and informative text will hold the attention of students and scholars as they take a journey through time to understand the role that history and philosophy have played in shaping the course of sport and physical education in Western and selected non Western civilizations From Mesoamerica and Ancient Greece to the 2008 Olympic Games the book touches on religion politics social movements and individuals as they contributed to the development of sport and physical education An extensive array of pedagogical tools including timelines comprehensive lists of chapter objectives suggested websites and discussion questions aids the learning experience Reconstituting the Curriculum M. R. Islam, Gary M. Zatzman, Jaan S. Islam, 2013-11-13 Based on groundbreaking new ideas this treatise signals a return to a rebuilding and reshaping of the curriculum as the primary tool for education This book presents a new definition of curriculum and what it should consist of with a view toward creating a more ethical educated and thinking person Rather than treating students as products for society this approach returns to a view of the curriculum as a tool for educating students to reason through problems be bold in creating new solutions and contribute to a more vibrant just world The university curriculum introduced in the post Renaissance era dominated by doctrinal philosophy is based on learning or skill development suitable for creating a learned society that would eventually serve the establishment This curriculum has been promoted as the only form suitable for the modern education system It has introduced a tremendous amount of tangible advancement in all fields of the structured education system These tangible gains are often promoted as knowledge This has created confusion between education acquiring knowledge and learning training or skill development This book seeks to clarify the difference between these two divergent views of education It has been shown that the current curriculum is not conducive to increasing a student s knowledge because it is based on consolidating preconceived ideas that have been either passed on from previous generations or gained through personal experience In most cases this mode of cognition will not create a pathway for gaining knowledge that brings one closer to discovery The term education on the other hand is always meant to be a process of bringing forth one s inherent qualities and unique traits necessary and sufficient for increasing one s knowledge
