Greene,2010-07-29 It's not just what it looks like and feels like. Design is how it works. Steve Jobs. There's a new race in business to embrace design thinking. Yet most executives have no clue what to make of the recent buzz about design. It's rarely the subject of business retreats. It's not easily measurable. To many, design is simply a crapshoot. Drawing on interviews with top executives such as Virgin's Richard Branson and Nike's Mark Parker, Jay Greene illuminates the methods of companies that rely on design to stand out in their industries. From the experiences of those at companies from Porsche to REI to Lego, we learn that design isn't merely about style and form. The heart of design is rethinking the way products and services work for customers in real life. Greene explains how Porsche pitted its designers against each other to create its bestselling Cayenne SUV. Clif listened intently to customers, resulting in the industry-changing Luna energy bar. OXO paid meticulous attention to the details, turning its LiquiSeal mug from an abysmal failure into one of its greatest successes. LEGO started saying no to its designers, saving its brick business in the process. Greene shows how important it is to build a culture in which design is more than an after-the-fact concern; it's part of your company's DNA. Design matters at every stage of the process. It isn't easy, and it increases costs, but it also boosts profits, sometimes to a massive extent. In an increasingly competitive marketplace, design represents the best chance you have of transcending your competitors. Porsche Carrera

Johnny Tipler,2019-02-18 The complete story of the innovative, iconic, and enduring Porsche Carrera. Although considered a classic car, the 911 continues in production today, and the 1,000,000th 911 is at the Porsche Museum, Zuffenhausen. This book takes the reader on a journey from the development of its risky water-cooled design through its racing success and continued production today to practical maintenance and modification. A true homage to the Porsche Carrera, covering the concept, design, and evolution of the 996, 997, and 991, and including an interview with harm Lagerfeld, stylist in the Porsche design studios. Other interviews include racing drivers past and present: Mike Wilds, Timo Bernhard, Richard Attwood, Richard Westbrook, Mario Andretti, Hans Joachim Stuck, Wolf Henzler, Brendon Hartley, and Peter Dumbreck. There is a section on how to buy, maintain, and modify a Porsche Carrera, and the book is superbly illustrated with 420 colour photographs, many of which were taken by renowned car photographer Antony Fraser. Uncle John's Know It All Bathroom Reader
