In this short story, Lata goes to a village fair with her husband Ramesh and has to decide whether to buy old cheap bangles or try some new and costly ones, whether to drink juice or eat popular food items, whether to buy the cheapest vermilion available in the village fair or not, and lastly whether to buy the toy car which his son Bannu has asked for last year. She has to take a decision keeping in mind the debt of the village's grocery shopkeeper. Will she sacrifice happiness in order to achieve her ambition? And most importantly, is sacrifice worth the ambition? I hope this story will throw light on tough decisions parents make for their children and how universal their sacrifices are. Michigan Christian Advocate, 1923 Running Through the Wall Neal Jamison, 2014-04-30 WHAT'S IT LIKE TO RUN FOR 30, 50, OR 100 MILES? This book is a great inspiration not only to current ultrarunners and to marathoners looking for the next challenge, but also to runners of all abilities who will see that there is nothing you can't do if you have the desire. What makes ultrarunners tick? What goes through their minds at mile 93? How can you train for such a colossal undertaking? These questions and many more are answered in this inspiring collection of 39 personal stories from ultramarathoners. Ultramarathoning is the logical next step for those who burn with a desire to explore their limits and beyond. It is impossible to run ultra distances without coming away with at least one fascinating story. This book is full of them. There are stories of fatigue, blisters, nausea, and despair. But the ultrarunner prevails to find hope, love, healing, self-discovery, friendship, selflessness, and in the end, for most, triumph. Learn what it feels like to run an ultra from the champions, the newcomers, and the veterans of the sport. A few brief excerpts: I left Edinburgh witnessing my second sunrise on this run. Most ultrarunners dread dawn, the hours from 4:00 to 6:00 a.m. primarily because this is when fatigue sets in. Keith Knippling: It would be hours before we'd see the first aid station and probably close to two days before we'd have dry feet again. Deb Pero: I'm 95 miles into a 100 miler, it's over 100 degrees out, my legs are shot. I'm a few scant minutes ahead of Ann and Gabriel and my pacer is stopped dead in the trail for fear of a skunk. Tim Twietmeyer: Ultrarunning is without question the most feared aspect of adventure racing. Ian Adamson: The urge to quit right there was overwhelming, but I was still in the race Perhaps a miracle would happen and I could get in under the four hours it would take to make the next cutoff I thanked the aid station captain and plunged into the darkness Will Brown It was time to put all the viable excuses aside and look inside Tracy Baldyga I think I quit about 20 times during the race mostly between the time the sun went down and the time that I finally walked away Reality sets in when it gets dark The trail gets lonely Jason Hodde During every race you are faced with a moment of truth a point in the race when you either quit or persevere to the end Every person who finishes an ultramarathon has accomplished a great feat simply because they finished Bethany Hunter Like Letters in Running Water Mary Aswell Doll,2000-07 Explores ways in which fiction yields transformative insights for educational theory and practice The Voice of the Mother Jo Malin,2000 Analyzing this narrative practice Malin examines ten texts by women who seem particularly compelled to tell their mothers stories Each author is in fact able to write her own autobiography only by using a narrative form that contains her mother s story at its core These texts raise interesting questions about autobiography as a genre and about a feminist writing practice that resists and subverts the dominant literary tradition
