Melvin James,2019-10-17 Superstition mysticism and religion weave like tangled vines through the tales of Amelia s newly discovered ancestry As a widow struggling to sustain herself and her ten year old son Amy s modest life is tragically disrupted when a dubious lawyer determines her late mother adopted at birth was the estranged daughter of the recently deceased Lexington McClary Although the net worth of the once enormous estate is petty Amy decides to travel several hundred miles to attend the funeral in the hope of at least learning a semblance of her newfound ancestry After the interment alone in the secluded rural cemetery Amy trips and bashes her head against a tombstone suffering a coma and complications requiring medical care and convalescence for several months While precariously recovering Amy is visited in the depth of nights by a mysterious woman who tells stories of Amy's maternal grandparents, their families and acquaintances. The tales of her ancestors reach back nearly a century and include their immigration from Ireland to New York City and their migration westward to Indian Territory. Poignant remembrances of her own life and the altered world into which she regains consciousness portray the unconquerable but elusive human spirit confronting failure in the wake of triumph, tragedy, dispelling romance, madness, shaming war of its glory and the cruelty of murder in defiance of reason.

The London Phonographer, 1891 Instantaneous Personal Magnetism Edmund Shaftesbury, 1926 The Routledge Handbook of Critical Interculturality in Communication and Education Fred Dervin, 2024-11-20 This Handbook is the first comprehensive volume to focus entirely on the notion of interculturality, reflecting on what the addition of the adjective 'critical' means for research and teaching in interdisciplinary studies. The book consists of 35 chapters, including a comprehensive introduction and conclusion. It aims to present current debates on critical interculturality and to help readers make sense of what the label implies and entails in global and local contexts, especially where possible beyond dominant scholarship and pedagogical practices. The chapters interrogate the use of terms in different languages to discuss interculturality, drawing on recent literature from as many different parts of the world as possible. Some contributors also problematise their own autobiographical engagement with critical interculturality in their chapters. The book will be of interest to Master's and PhD students in education, communication and intercultural studies who wish to develop their knowledge of critical interculturality. Established researchers in these fields will also benefit from this invaluable and original source of essential reading.
