Andreotti,2016-03-16 This edited collection offers analyses of global citizenship education within and across different national contexts This book illustrates the contingency of definitions the complexities of juxtaposing demands and priorities in different educational contexts and the difficulties and tensions of asking a question that is arguably one of the most pressing of our time how should we live together in interdependent ecologies in a finite planet In the discipline of education where market imperatives and the dictatorship of effective replicable results have laid siege to independent debates this book aims to emphasize the importance of raising our intellectual game as educators to interrupt new and old problematic patterns of engagements representations uncomplicated solutions and conceptual straightjackets Contributors to this volume address the tensions between homogenizing universalisms and parochial specificisms ethnocentrisms and relativisms deficit theorizations and romanticizations of difference fantasies of supremacy and paralyses in guilt the global and the local The chapters take different approaches to map the origins meanings workings ethics politics and implications of initiatives approaches and conceptual frameworks related to the ideas of globalization citizenship and education in different sites of knowledge production This book was originally published as a special issue of Globalisation Societies and Education

Geopolitics in Health Eduardo J. Gómez,2018 In Geopolitics in Health Eduardo J G mez takes a critical look at how the emerging BRICS economies dealt with the obesity AIDS and tuberculosis epidemics Despite the countries having similar international political and economic ambitions G mez finds that domestic policy responses were driven mainly by international as opposed to domestic pressures and interests Using a theoretical framework called geopolitical positioning G mez explores how nations respond to international pressures and policy criticisms as well as offers of financial and technical assistance countries then utilize domestic policy innovations and ultimately engage in global health diplomacy in order to bolster their international reputation Publisher description Visible Hands ; ; Unrisd,2019-08-15 This volume is a compilation of an United Nations research institute for social development report for Geneva in 2000 It provides a comprehensive analysis of the progress to date exploring efforts to reassert the value of equity and social cohesion in an increasingly individualistic world Educating Children in Conflict Zones Karen Mundy,Sarah Dryden-Peterson,2015-04-24 Inspired by the work of the late Dr Jacqueline Kirk this book takes a penetrating look at the challenges of delivering quality education to the approximately 39 million out of school children around the world who live in situations affected by violent conflict With chapters by leading researchers on education in war and other conflict zones the volume provides a comprehensive and critical overview of the links between conflict and children s access to education as well as a review of the policies and approaches taken by those offering international assistance in this area Empirical case studies drawn from diverse contextsAfghanistan Sierra Leone Rwanda and Uganda among others offer readers a deeper understanding of the educational needs of these children and the practical challenges to meeting these needs NGO Management Alan Fowler,Chiku Malunga,2020-09-23 The task environment of NGOs is changing rapidly and significantly making new demands on their management and leadership This Companion discusses the complexities involved It illustrates how NGOs can maintain performance and remain agile amidst increasing uncertainties These factors include the position of NGOs in civil society their involvement in governance and coping with the effects of the securitisation of international aid Complementing The Earthscan Reader in NGO Management selected contributions and specially commissioned pieces from NGO thought leaders and practitioners provide the reader with insights on the emerging thinking competences and practices needed for success in managing and leading tomorrow's NGOs

Global Education Policy and International Development Antoni Verger, Hulya K. Altinyelken, Mario Novelli, 2013-03-28 Exploring the interplay between globalization education and international development this book surveys the impact of global education policies on local policy in developing countries With chapters written by leading international scholars drawing on a full range of theoretical perspectives and offering a diverse selection of case studies from Africa Asia and South America this book considers such topics as How are global education agendas and policies formed and implemented What is the impact of such policy priorities as public private partnerships child centred pedagogies and school based management What are the effects of political and economic globalization on educational reform and change How do mediating institutions affect the translation of global policies to particular educational contexts What are the limitations of globalised policy solutions and what problems do they encounter at local levels From students of education development and globalization to practitioners working in developing contexts this book is an important resource for those seeking to understand how global forces and local realities meet to shape education policy in the developing world

Visible Hands United Nations Research Institute for Social Development, 2000 This text shows how the visible hands of public participation and democratic governance are crucial in creating a decent society The World Summit for Social Development in 1995 laid out an ambitious agenda to create an economic political social cultural and legal environment for social development This volume provides a comprehensive analysis of the progress to date exploring efforts to reassert the value of equity and social cohesion in an increasingly individualistic world It reveals the failings of unregulated markets and the importance of a well run public sector as well as a healthy and educated population

Transformations of Gender in Melanesia Martha Macintyre, Ceridwen Spark, 2017-02-06 Despite the plethora of research on gender and the many projects designed to improve their status in the Pacific region women continue to be disadvantaged and marginalised in social economic and political spheres How are we to understand this and what does it mean for researchers policy makers and development practitioners This book examines these questions partly by looking back but also by continuing the effort to explain and understand gender inequities in the Pacific through reference to the concept of societies in transition The contributors discuss emerging masculinities and femininities in the Pacific in order to chart the development of these in their contexts Exploring how contemporary Pacific identities are shaped by local contexts and traditions they focus on how these are remade through interaction with global ideas images and practices including new forms of Christianity and economic transformations Grounded in recent original research in both the villages and towns of

Melanesia the collection engages with the study of gender in Melanesia as well as scholarship on global modernities This collection is a welcome addition to the study of gender in Melanesia Collectively the essays present complex locally contextualised and regionally situated case studies of gender transformation occurring alongside in many instances the re codification of hegemonic gendered norms and practices Gender is not understood as simply code for women in this volume rather the majority of chapters incorporate men and masculinities in their analysis of gender relations and dynamics A highlight of the collection is the attention paid to how the politics of tradition and of modernity are expressed through morally loaded concepts of the good or bad woman or man and vice versa Kalissa Alexeyeff University of Melbourne
