Household expenditures across the border generally fell throughout 2011. But persistent unemployment and economic downturns in neighboring countries are expected to hit personal budgets hard in 2012, with the cost of the debt ceiling and recent spending cut adjustments and stimulus reducing the income needs along with the general budget situation. The negative impact of the stimulus on expenditure is not expected to be as large as you would guess either, and there are other general budget uncertainties that are expected to have a small impact.

Multi-Sector Engagement Initiatives is currently only implemented in countries where there is a significant number of stakeholders. It is used for projects that need to address the concerns of various interest groups that spanned multiple ministries or government departments. The project is implemented in the form of a working group, which is a group of representatives from the various ministries or government departments that are involved in the project. The working group is responsible for identifying the issues that need to be addressed, developing a plan of action, and implementing the plan. The working group is also responsible for monitoring the progress of the project and reporting on the results. The working group is a key component of the Multi-Sector Engagement Initiatives, and it is essential for the success of the project.
