

Role Model Essay

There are so many people we follow these days on social media and in real life as we love them and admire their values. We also get inspired and influenced by some people we meet or simply know about. Every person has unique qualities and behavioral traits. Sometimes, someone's qualities attract our attention and we start liking that person, irrespective of gender or other differences. We love or get inspired by their unique qualities, abilities and nurture a dream to be like them one day. These personalities that our heart craves to follow and personality are our role models. A role model could be anyone. S/he could be a politician, an actress or an actor, a well known philanthropist, social activist etc. S/he could even be someone you know very dearly, like your father, mother or uncle etc.

Role Model Essay 1 (200 words)

I love my mom; I love her the most, is the thought that comes to my mind when I think about her. She is the one who loves me unconditionally and cares for me beyond imagination. When she embraces me I get the most tranquil feeling in life. She knows it all before even I know what I want in my life. She reads my silence, my tears, my mind and my heart. But, does she know that she has the biggest place in my heart...? Life doesn't come with any manual it just comes with a mother and all our questions and doubts in life are answered. One person that I always want besides me is my mom. She constantly plays so many roles in my life be it a teacher, mentor, cook or a doctor and so on. Her selflessness is unmatched. She endures all the problems in life with a smiling face and stands strong and firm. She is my inspiration to be a strong and loving mother. She is truly my role model. Though, I never know whether I can ever fit in her shoes. It breaks my heart when she is upset or when she falls sick. I have one little prayer to God; just keep my parents healthy and happy forever.

Role Model Essay 2 (300 words)

Father is the only man in the world who will never hurt his daughter. A father daughter relation is the most beautiful relation in the world. It is so cute and touching how fathers care for their daughters and enjoy their tantrums. My father is my role model. I am his first priority and he is always partial towards me than my brothers. He pampers me and makes me feel like the most special daughter in the world. Like every other father he too is very protective for me. He never forgets to buy special gifts for me from everywhere he travels for business. He supports me and guides me through each and every phase of my life. I share unexpressed bond with my father that comprises of respect, love and care. He is an introvert who generally doesn't express his feelings when he is upset, but I understand how he feels on different occasions. I know the wounds of his heart and the struggles he has done throughout his life. His children are his world and he has always provided them with what they want, even in the most challenging periods of his life. He has always been strong and firm, but he never complains or shows that he is tired of being so strong, but I do know. I really know he is and it really pinches my heart. He believes strongly in humanity and lives with his ethics in life. He is the most kind-hearted person and never ever wishes evil for anyone in life. He is hardworking, dedicated and sincere in his work. He is a simple person and loves to live a simple life. He inspires to be a good human being in life. I love him. He is the most special man in my life. He will forever be my hero, mentor and guide throughout my life.

Genre Knowledge in Disciplinary Communication Carol Berkenkotter, Thomas N. Huckin, 2016-05-06 Although genre studies abound in literary criticism researchers and scholars interested in the social contexts of literacy have recently become interested in the dynamic rhetorical dimensions of speech genres Within this burgeoning scholarly community the authors are among the first researchers working within social science traditions to study genre from the perspective of the implicit knowledge of language users Thus this is the first sociocognitive study of genre using case study naturalistic research methods combined with the techniques of rhetorical and discourse analysis The term genre knowledge refers to an individual s repertoire of situationally appropriate responses to recurrent situations from immediate encounters to distanced communication through the medium of print and more recently the electronic media One way to study the textual character of disciplinary knowledge is to examine both the situated actions of writers and the communicative systems in which disciplinary actors participate These two perspectives are presented in this book The authors studies of disciplinary communication examine operations of systems as diverse as peer review in scientific publications and language in a first grade science classroom The methods used include case study and ethnographic techniques rhetorical and discourse analysis of changing features within large corpora and in the texts of individual writers Through the use of these techniques the authors engaged in both micro level and macro level analyses and developed a perspective which reflects both foci From this perspective they propose that what micro level studies of actors situated actions frequently depict as individual processes can also be interpreted from the macro level as communicative acts within a discursive network or system The research methods and the theoretical framework presented are designed to raise provocative questions for scholars researchers and teachers in a number of fields linguists who teach and conduct research in ESP and LSP and are interested in methods for studying professional communication scholars in the fields of communication rhetoric and sociology of science with an interest in the textual dynamics of scientific and scholarly communities educational researchers interested in cognition in context and composition scholars interested in writing in the disciplines
