Roman Empire By Prentice Hall:

Paul's Letter to the Romans and Roman Imperialism Ian E Rock, 2017-05-25 Ian E Rock demonstrates that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the face of death Paul demonstrates that it is God's peace and not Rome's peace that is important that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord and to the kingdom of God not Jupiter and Rome leads to salvation that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord and not from the benefactions of the Emperor If the resurrection of Jesus the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire demonstrates God's power over the universe and death the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power Paul's theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is One and Lord of all is still in charge of the world scholarship has opened a new door towards understanding the fourth century's most famous and mysterious convert In Constantine and the Divine Mind Chandler offers a new portrait of Constantine as a deeply religious man on a quest to restore what he believed was once the original religion of mankind monotheism By tracing this theological quest and important historical trends in Roman paganism Chandler illuminates the process by which Constantine embraced Christianity and how the reasons for that embrace continued to manifest in his religious policies In this we discover not only Constantine's personal religious journey but the reason why Christianity was first developed into a world power
