Padma's All American Padma Lakshmi, 2025-11-04 I never had to leave the country to taste the world's flavors Wherever you live come along with me This book is a love letter to the people who create and evolve American cuisine every day It is also a road map to the foods that give America its vibrant palate When Padma Lakshmi arrived in New York City in the 1970s she witnessed firsthand the cuisines of the immigrant communities around her uniquely their own and yet quintessentially American Here in this very personal book the result of seven years of traveling and tasting listening and observing for her show Taste the Nation Lakshmi compiles dozens of recipes from the immigrant and Indigenous communities she visits as well as many from her own family showing us what really comprises American cuisine For Lakshmi food is a lens Through it we can explore the influence of an eclectic array of cultures and come to see clearly who we are and how we eat as a nation Padma's All American gives us a kaleidoscopic view of the vast range of incredible dishes she delighted in tasting on her travels from coast to coast and everywhere in between From Indian coconut rice and Peruvian tamales with chicken to Afghani dumplings with leeks and scallions from Oaxacan mushroom tacos to a strawberry cardamom and cream cake that will be your new favorite celebration treat Padma's All American is filled with mouth watering recipes adapted here for the home cook along with profiles and stories from the people who inspired the dishes

Padma's All American is a joyful book a reflection of who we truly are as a nation from one of our most essential culinarians

Based on the award winning Hulu series Taste the Nation with Padma Lakshmi Caribeños at the Table Melissa Fuster, 2021-09-15

Missella Fuster thinks expansively about the multiple meanings of comida food from something as simple as a meal to something as complex as one's identity She listens intently to the voices of New York City residents with Cuban Dominican or Puerto Rican backgrounds as well as to those of the nutritionists and health professionals who serve them She argues with sensitivity that the migrants health depends not only on food culture but also on important structural factors that underlie their access to food employment and high quality healthcare People in Hispanic Caribbean communities in the United States present high rates of obesity diabetes and other diet related diseases conditions painfully highlighted during the COVID 19 pandemic Both eaters and dietitians may blame these diseases on the shedding of traditional diets in favor of highly processed foods Or conversely they may blame these on the traditional diets of fatty meat starchy root vegetables and rice Applying a much needed intersectional approach Fuster shows that nutritionists and eaters often misrepresent and even racialize or pathologize a cuisine's healthfulness or unhealthfulness if they overlook the kinds of economic and racial inequities that exist within the global migration experience TWELVE WOUNDS Steven Lehrer, 2006-06-21
