and original voices Gabriel Lightfoot is an enterprising man from a northern England mill town making good in London. As executive chef at the once splendid Imperial Hotel he is trying to run a tight kitchen. But his integrity to say nothing of his sanity is under constant challenge from the competing demands of an exuberant multinational staff, a gimlet-eyed hotel management and business partners with whom he is secretly planning a move to a restaurant of his own. Despite the pressures all his hard work looks set to pay off. Until a worker is found dead in the kitchen's basement. It is a small death, a lonely death, but it is enough to disturb the tenuous balance of Gabe's life. Elsewhere Gabriel faces other complications. His father is dying of cancer, his girlfriend wants more from their relationship and the restaurant manager appears to be running an illegal business under Gabe's nose. Enter Lena, an eerily attractive young woman with mysterious ties to the dead man. Under her spell Gabe makes a decision the consequences of which strip him naked and change the course of the life he knows and the future he thought he wanted. Readers and reviewers have been stunned by the breadth of humanity in Monica Ali's fiction. She is compared to Dickens and called one of three British novelists who are the voice of a generation by Time magazine. In The Kitchen is utterly contemporary yet has all the drama and heartbreak of a great nineteenth-century novel. Ali is sheer pleasure to read, a truly magnificent writer.
