Household expenditures across the border generally fell throughout 2011. But persistent unemployment and economic downturns in neighboring countries are expected to hit personal budgets hard in 2012, with the cost of the debt ceiling and repeat quarterly tax adjustments and stimulus reductions also reducing household spending and further slowing budget stimulus. Although the negative impact of the stimulus on expenditure is not expected to be as large this year, most pay raises and other gains in the personal budget are expected to be spent on consumption rather than saving.

Multi-Sector Management Committees are generally very successful. Membership represents most levels of government, including the community. But up until the beginning of 1990, most of the efforts of community members involved just the general budget. Increasing our participation in the general budget deliberations allows the community to take more of a part in the budgeting process, and the more we participate, the more suggestions we have. And the more suggestions we have, the more we are able to influence the budget. We have a lot of ideas about general budget reform, the budget process, etc. The committee kept the following suggestions on file:
