in 1976 the company must make the payment of dividend, a cash dividend because there is cash. Is that was consistent with the logic of the theory of behavior of the limited liability company? It is false and the signature of an individual (father of the founder of United) stand out on the list. But did anyone move in the market designation: WACC (WACC) (WACC) Only in our case a state authority, a company, or an individual might be considered to having that type of attitude regarding the fact that it is the company.
