Perception Club Destiny 6:

Aztlán and Arcadia Roberto Ramon Lint Sagarena, 2014 In the wake of the Mexican American War competing narratives of religious conquest and re conquest were employed by Anglo American and ethnic Mexican Californians to make sense of their place in North America These invented traditions had a profound impact on North American religious and ethnic relations serving to bring elements of Catholic history within the Protestant fold of the United States national history as well as playing an integral role in the emergence of the early Chicano a movement Many Protestant Anglo Americans understood their settlement in the far Southwest as following in the footsteps of the colonial project begun by Catholic Spanish missionaries In contrast Californios Mexican Americans and Chicana os stressed deep connections to a pre Columbian past over to their own Spanish heritage Thus as Anglo Americans fashioned themselves as the spiritual heirs to the Spanish frontier many ethnic Mexicans came to see themselves as the spiritual heirs to a southwestern Aztec homeland and reflective diaries and writings Her private and published writings show that despite the appearances of the quintessential normal life Colby struggled to reconcile her personal hopes and ambitions with the expectations and obligations placed on her by society Author Tina Stewart Brakebill has woven original research with secondary material to form the fabric of Colby's life from her days as the daughter of an Ohio dairy farmer to her relationship with her daughter a pioneering university professor

Club Cultures Silvia Rief, 2011-04-27 This book explores contemporary club and dance cultures as a manifestation of aesthetic and prosthetic forms of life Rief addresses the questions of how practices of clubbing help cultivate particular forms of reflexivity and modes of experience and how these shape new devices for reconfiguring the boundaries around youth cultural and other social identities She contributes empirical analyses of how such forms of experience are mediated by the particular structures of night clubbing economies the organizational regulation and the local organization of experience in club spaces the media discourses and imageries the technologies intervening into the sense system of the body e.g. music visuals drugs and the academic discourses on dance culture Although the book draws from local club scenes in London and elsewhere in the UK it also reflects on similarities and differences between nightclubbing cultures across geographical contexts
