Rover 75 and MG ZT James Taylor, 2014-03-31 From the moment of its launch in 1998 the Rover 75 caught the public's imagination. Here at last was a car that felt like traditional Rovers and had been designed in Britain. Rover 75 and MG ZT charts the evolution of the models from the early 1990s onwards including full production histories and comprehensive specification details. Contents include the development and production of the Rover 75 under BMW in the 1990s becoming the MG Rover Group from BMW to Phoenix Venture Holdings expanding the Rover 75 with Longbridge Rover Saloons and Tourers the MG models of the new millennium the ZT and ZT T monogram 75 the five millionth Rover a facelift for the cars with the new V8 engines moving production to China and the end of the MG Rover Group. Illustrated with 267 colour photographs this is essential reading for motoring enthusiasts and fans of the Rover brand. The Essential Graham Robson, 2004 Essential MG tells the full story of this well-loved sports car from its early days covering developments in style increases in power and its history in racing and speed trials. The first MG cars were produced in Oxford, England, in 1924. The car was instantly appealing with a cheekiness of spirit that would characterize the marque all of its life, winning the hearts of millions around the globe, not least in the United States. The price was as attractive as the styling and the performance. It was cheap and it was fun, quintessential MG traits. Cars & Parts, 1988 Autocar, 2004 Motor, 1963 The Autocar, 1986 Motor Cycling and Motoring, 1913 American Racing Manual, 1928 Popular Science, 2001-12 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world. As the world's largest car producer since 2008, China's automotive industry deserves a closer look. Driving the Dragon explores the history of Chinese car manufacture, looking at some of the important cars on that journey, the false starts and missed opportunities. The story begins with the Rover 75 and how it played a key role in moving the Chinese car industry forward. It concludes with a look at cars from the likes of BYD, Zeekr and Nio, which are becoming mainstream in the UK and Europe as some of the most competitive electric vehicles on the market, not just in terms of price but also performance and desirability. For many people, China is still a very enigmatic country, not helped by recent political events. While the book focuses on the automotive industry, it also looks at the country itself and examines the culture surrounding the industry. The author spent 30 years in China teaching test driving and reviewing Chinese cars and writing while witnessing first-hand the extraordinary growth of the Chinese car industry. The Country Gentleman John Jacobs Thomas, 1864 A journal for the farm, the garden and the fireside, devoted to improvement in agriculture, horticulture and rural taste to elevation in mental, moral and social character and the spread of useful knowledge and current news. Prairie
