The Austin Motor Company was founded here by Herbert Austin in 1905 and it has since been home to the British Motor Corporation British Leyland Rover Group and latterly MG Rover. Its products include some of the most famous British models ever produced: the pioneering Austin Seven of the 1920s, the classic Mini introduced to the world in 1959 with an astonishing production run of 41 years and a final tally of over 5 million, the Austin Metro trumpeted as the British Car to Beat the World and in later years the best selling MG TF and elegant Rover 75. The factory has been a major employer and an integral part of the local community since its foundation. The sad events of April 2005 when MG Rover went into administration will radically change the landscape. But the area is now looking to the future, never forgetting its long and proud tradition of manufacturing. Colin Corke is a lifelong car enthusiast, Vicar of Longbridge and a former chaplain to the factory. Gillian Bardsley is Archivist to the British Motor Industry Heritage Trust at Gaydon which is custodian of the extensive Longbridge archive and much more. She is also biographer of Sir Alec Issigonis who designed some of the factory's best loved products. Rover Group Mike Gould, 2015-05-31 The Rover Group Company and Cars is a comprehensive history of the company and a guide to its products. Centring on the period of the official existence of the Rover Group, the book also examines the events leading up to its formation in 1986 and its controversial aftermath following its dismemberment in 2000. The book is backed by first hand accounts from Rover employees as well as a foreword by Jon Moulton, the man behind several bids to acquire elements of the company. Including production histories and full specification guides to its cars, The Rover Group is a compelling insider's account of one of the most controversial periods in the British motor industry. The book covers the beginnings of Rover and its place in British Leyland Land Rover's expansion in the 1980s.
