Theory and Practice of Dialogical Community Development Peter Westoby, Gerard Dowling, 2013-07-18 This book proposes that community development has been increasingly influenced and co opted by a modernist soulless rational philosophy reducing it to a shallow technique for solving community problems In contrast this dialogical approach re maps the ground of community development practice within a frame of ideas such as dialogue hospitality and depth For the first time community development practitioners are provided with an accessible understanding of dialogue and its relevance to their practice exploring the contributions of internationally significant thinkers such as P Freire M Buber D Bohm and H G Gadamer J Derrida G Esteva and R Sennett What makes the book distinctive is that first it identifies a dialogical tradition of community development and considers how such a tradition shapes practice within contemporary contexts and concerns economic social political cultural and ecological Second the book contrasts such an approach with technical and instrumental approaches to development that fail to take complex systems
