

Chapter 1
Early American History
Western Expansion
What the growth meant for your state (Chapters 1-4, Lesson 1)

1. What was the main reason for the growth of the United States? (Chapter 1, Lesson 1)
The main reason for the growth of the United States was the discovery of gold in California. This led to the Gold Rush, which caused many people to move to California in search of wealth. The growth of the United States was also due to the discovery of oil in Texas, which led to the oil boom.

2. How did the growth of the United States affect the economy? (Chapter 1, Lesson 1)
The growth of the United States had a significant impact on the economy. It led to the discovery of new resources, such as gold and oil, which increased the country's wealth. The growth also led to the development of new industries, such as mining and oil drilling, which created jobs and stimulated economic growth.

3. What was the main reason for the growth of the United States? (Chapter 1, Lesson 1)
The main reason for the growth of the United States was the discovery of gold in California. This led to the Gold Rush, which caused many people to move to California in search of wealth. The growth of the United States was also due to the discovery of oil in Texas, which led to the oil boom.
