Ronald Takaki A Different Mirror:

A Different Mirror for Young People Ronald Takaki, 2012-10-16 A longtime professor of Ethnic Studies at the University of California at Berkeley Ronald Takaki was recognized as one of the foremost scholars of American ethnic history and diversity When the first edition of A Different Mirror was published in 1993 Publishers Weekly called it a brilliant revisionist history of America that is likely to become a classic of multicultural studies and named it one of the ten best books of the year Now Rebecca Stefoff who adapted Howard Zinn's best selling A People's History of the United States for younger readers turns the updated 2008 edition of Takaki's multicultural masterwork into A Different Mirror for Young People Drawing on Takaki's vast array of primary sources and staying true to his own words whenever possible A Different Mirror for Young People brings ethnic history alive through the words of people including teenagers who recorded their experiences in letters diaries and poems Like Zinn's A People's History Takaki's A Different Mirror offers a rich and rewarding people's view perspective on the American story A Different Mirror Ronald Takaki, 2012-06-05 Takaki traces the economic and political history of Indians African Americans Mexicans Japanese Chinese Irish and Jewish people in America with considerable attention given to instances and consequences of racism The narrative is laced with short quotations cameos of personal experiences and excerpts from folk music and literature Well known occurrences such as the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire the Trail of Tears the Harlem Renaissance and the Japanese internment are included Students may be surprised by some of the revelations but will recognize a constant thread of rampant racism The author concludes with a summary of today's changing economic climate and offers Rodney King's challenge to all of us to try to get along Readers will find this overview to be an accessible cogent jumping off place for American history and political science plus a guide to the myriad other sources identified in the notes Theories of American Culture, Theories of American Studies Winfried Fluck, 2003

Public Education in a Multicultural Society Robert K. Fullinwider, 1996-01-26 This collection of essays deals with philosophical and educational questions about multi culturalism in primary and secondary schools Strangers from a Different Shore Ronald T. Takaki, 1990 In an extraordinary blend of eloquent narrative history vivid personal recollection and oral testimony Ronald Takaki relates the diverse 150 year history of Asian Americans Through richly detailed vignettes by turns bitter funny and inspiring he offers a stunning panorama of a neglected part of American history 16 pages of photographs Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Toward One America: A National Conversation on Race , Deculturalization and the Struggle for Equality Joel Spring, 2016-02-26 Joel Spring's history of school policies imposed on dominated groups in the United States examines the concept of deculturalization the use of schools to strip away family languages and cultures and replace them with those of the dominant group The focus is on the education of dominated groups forced to become citizens in territories conquered by the U S including Native Americans Enslaved Africans Chinese Mexicans Puerto Ricans and Hawaiians In 7 concise thought provoking chapters this analysis and documentation of how education is used to change or eliminate linguistic and cultural traditions in the U S looks at the educational legal and social construction of race and racism in the United States emphasizing the various meanings of equality that have existed from colonial America to the present Providing a broader perspective for understanding the denial of cultural and linguistic rights in the United States issues of language culture and deculturalization are placed in a global context The major change in the 8th Edition is a new chapter Global Corporate Culture and Separate But Equal describing how current efforts at deculturalization involve replacing family and personal cultures with a corporate culture to increase worker efficiency Substantive updates and revisions are made throughout all other chapters Uneven Roads Todd Shaw,Louis

DeSipio,Dianne Pinderhughes,Lorrie Frasure,Toni-Michelle C. Travis,2024-01-12 Uneven Roads helps students grasp how when and why race and ethnicity matter in U S politics Using the metaphor of a road with twists turns and dead ends this incisive text takes students on a journey to understanding political racialization and the roots of modern interpretations of race and ethnicity The book s structure and narrative are designed to encourage comparison and reflection Students critically analyze the history and context of U S racial and ethnic politics to build the skills needed to draw their own conclusions In the Third Edition of this groundbreaking text authors Shaw DeSipio Pinderhughes Frasure and Travis bring the historical narrative to life by addressing the most contemporary debates and challenges affecting U S racial and ethnic politics Students will explore important issues regarding voting rights political representation education and criminal justice policies and the immigrant experience Unholy Sensations Joshua Paddison,2025 The true story of the first California cult scandal In 1891 a suffragist and social reformer named Alzire Chevaillier launched a moral crusade to destroy Fountaingrove a utopian spiritualist community in northern California Chevaillier accused the colony s leader the poet and prophet Thomas Lake Harris of perverting the teachings of the Bible to promote a new sexology that was worse than Mormonism She insisted that Harris used magical powers of hypnosis to take sexual and financial advantage of his followers turning them into a spiritual harem that practiced free love and other gross immoralities Media reports emphasized the presence of Japanese immigrant men at Fountaingrove raising racialized specters of miscegenation and moral contamination The international scandal full of the sorts of salacious details prized by newspaper editors at the dawn of the era of yellow journalism would last more than a decade establishing Harris as the prototype for a new type of public menace the California cult leader Unholy Sensations takes a close up look at the Fountaingrove scandal to examine religion gender sexuality and race in the Gilded Age from a fresh perspective By chronicling the life stories of the people swept up in the scandal Unholy Sensations reveals connections and tensions between a wide variety of nineteenth century religious and social groups including suffragists and spiritualists Christian Scientists and Theosophists journalists and politicians and Protestant ministers and urban reformers Together these disparate groups helped spark California s first cult scare demonizing Harris as the first but far from the last dangerous California cult leader By showing that the term cult has always been a marker of race sexuality and religion Unholy Sensations reveals the limits of American freedom and the centrality of religion to the policing of whiteness family and nation Sports Matters John Bloom, Michael Willard, 2002-09 Sports Matters brings critical attention to the centrality of race within the politics and pleasures of the massive sports culture that developed in the U S during the past century and a half Race, Class, and Gender in the United States Paula S. Rothenberg, 2004 Race Class and Gender in the United States An Integrated Study presents students with a compelling clear study of issues of race gender and sexuality within the context of class Rothenberg offers students 126 readings each providing different perspectives and examining the ways in which race gender class and sexuality are socially constructed Rothenberg deftly and consistently helps students analyze each phenomena as well as the relationships among them thereby deepening their understanding of each issue surrounding race and ethnicity Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1994

Learning to Speak a New Tongue Fumitaka Matsuoka, 2011-09-14 Learning to Speak a New Tongue attempts to respond to a timely question facing America today What holds people together in a fragmented world The response comes from a religious community that has not been very visible Asian Americans The author employs the threefold epistemological scaffold familiar to Asian Americans 1 translocal value orientation embedded in the experiences of racialization 2 a heightened sensitivity to pathos arising out of our dissonance with the societal norms and values and 3 amphibolous spirituality that is a co existence of multiple religious traditions without any resolution of their differences The angle of vision embedded in this epistemological framework of Asian Americans lives may well provide a clue to an alternate architectural paradigm in building a new peoplehood and to redefine democratic freedom as the historical paradigm of American peoplehood Anti-Racist Teaching Robert P. Amico, 2015-12-03 Antiracist Teaching is about awakening students to their own humanity In order to teach about this awakening one must be in the process of awakening oneself The author shares personal anecdotes to illustrate the kinds of changes he experienced as a result of his antiracist teaching His book explores the questions Why is teaching about racism and white privilege to white students so difficult and What can educators do to become more effective antiracist teachers for all of their students Amico examines the cognitive and emotive obstacles that students experience in the classroom and argues that understanding these difficulties can lead to their resolution He considers a variety of different approaches to antiracist teaching and endorses a dialogic approach Dialogue is the centerpiece of students classroom experiences students engage in dialogue at nearly every class meeting The dialogic approach is effective in a variety of different learning settings from K 12 classrooms trainings retreats workshops and community organizations to the college classroom Further the book discusses how to bring antiracist teaching into the core of university curricula New England Frontier Alden T. Vaughan, 1995 In contrast to most accounts of Puritan Indian relations New England Frontier argues that the first two generations of Puritan settlers were neither generally hostile toward their Indian neighbors nor indifferent to their territorial rights Rather American Puritans especially their political and religious leaders sought peaceful and equitable relations as the first step in molding the Indians into neo Englishmen When accumulated Indian resentments culminated in the war of 1675 however the relatively benign intercultural contact of the preceding fifty five year period rapidly declined With a new introduction updating developments in Puritan Indian studies in the last fifteen years this third edition affords the reader a clear balanced overview of a complex and sensitive area of American history

Women, Wars and Public Policies Ayanna Yonemura, 2025-03-31 Women Wars and Public Policies shatters the boundaries of conventional antiracism offering an examination of white supremacy's persistence through the lens of humanity's most pressing challenges The author tackles migration war national security terrorism nationalism and patriarchy exposing institutionalized oppressions across continents and centuries Defying identity politics this book demonstrates the pervasiveness of Western culture and the need to radically address dominant narratives The author presents three interrelated case studies They are Eleanor Roosevelt's advocacy for Japanese Americans and African Americans connections between Roosevelt's politics and those of U S President Donald Trump including how Trump weaponized masculinity laying the groundwork for decimating refugee and asylum policies and Germany's culture of remembrance and Chancellor Angela Merkel's approach to the so called migrant crisis Transcending racial national and disciplinary boundaries with an intersectional framework Women Wars and Public Policies exposes parallels between historical injustices and contemporary actions forcing a re examination of national narratives and institutionalized multiculturalism As migration debates and white supremacy continue to drive politics this work provides globally significant insights into gender and race demanding that we confront our shared histories and futures

Romancing the Internet Jin Feng, 2013-08-15 In Romancing the Internet Producing and Consuming Chinese Web Romance Jin Feng examines the evolution of Chinese popular romance on the Internet She first provides a brief genealogy of Chinese Web literature and Chinese popular romance and then investigates how large socio cultural forces have shaped new writing and reading practices and created new subgenres of popular romance in contemporary China Integrating ethnographic methods into literary and discursive analyses Feng offers a gendered audience oriented study of Chinese popular culture in the age of the Internet

Multiculturalism in the United States Peter Kivisto, Georganne Rundblad, 2000-02-18 This reader focuses on the extremely current important topic of racial and ethnic experiences in the United States today Most of the essays were commissioned especially for this reader and have been prepared by some of the brightest voices in this cutting edge field Instructors in search of a current comprehensive multicultural reader will find this a valuable student resource whether it is the sole focus of their course or to be integrated into another content area

Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Performing Arts Workforce Tobie S. Stein, 2019-10-28 Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Performing Arts Workforce examines the systemic and institutional barriers and individual biases that continue to perpetuate a predominately White nonprofit performing arts workforce in the United States Workforce diversity for purposes of this book is defined as racial and ethnic diversity among workforce participants and stakeholders in the performing arts including employees artists board members funders donors educators audience and community members The research explicitly uncovers the sociological and psychological reasons for inequitable workforce policies and practices within the historically White nonprofit performing arts sector and provides examples of the ways in which transformative leaders sharing a multiplicity of cultural backgrounds can collaboratively and collectively create and produce a culturally plural community centered workforce in the performing arts Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
