

Our club is offering scholarships to deserving students. These awards are available to students from Placer, Colfax, Foresthill, Pine Hills Academy, and Confluence High Schools. Deadline for award nomination is March 20, 2020.

If you know of a high school senior who meets the qualifications for our Alan Young Bootstrap Award, please send me letter of Recommendation identifying the student and describe why you feel they deserve this award. This is not an award where students are expected to apply themselves. You, as the Senior Class Counselor or teacher, are the most logical person to make such a recommendation. Because our goal is to help the student continue to meet their goals and make their dreams come true we will also need a short essay from the student describing their future goals and how such a financial award would be directed in attaining these goals.

Please send your letter and the student's essay no later than March 20, 2020.

Thank you for your help,

Letters to and from a Christian Mother and More Silas Dobbs McCaslin, 2011-10 Ethics morals and society in general have been spiraling downward for more than 50 years Life simply was different up through the 1940s and the decade that followed Christian thought today is discredited on the university campus and traditional Christian piety now is viewed by the majority of the public as old fashioned Postmodernism has become entrenched In Christian circles the question often is asked How does the unbeliever cope As believing Christians we know that the Word of God provides all of the answers Perhaps LETTERS TO AND FROM A CHRISTIAN MOTHER AND MORE will be of some assistance to both the believer and the unbeliever who as the parent of a young child or children or of young adult children must advise and counsel that child as they navigate through their religious social and academic decisions Dr Terry L Johnson stated that the letters are remarkable and show clearly what a devout and accomplished woman your mother was They are wise and devotionally rich and may deserve a wider readership From the Preface Dr Johnson continued Their literary quality was outstanding More importantly they were filled with sound shrewd bold Biblical counsel for her boys particularly in the years between the beginning of college and the birth of Si and Suzanne s first child Carey I wanted to read more and became convinced that others particularly parents could benefit from hearing the strong counsel of a Christian mother to her beloved sons From the Foreword

Once a Rotarian, Always a Rotarian Sean M. Teaford, 2016-04-27 This collection was originally written as posts for my blog Time To Keep It Simple which has long since served as a daily record of my life as a traveler writer genealogist photographer Rotarian Mason Jew PR professional and many other mostly positive things Those original posts have been divided into sections according to The Four Way Test which is recited before every Rotary meeting and serves as a means to guide the actions of every Rotarian The questions we ask ourselves every day are as follows Is it the TRUTH Is it FAIR to all concerned Does it promote GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned While my activity within Rotary has been limited in recent years the lessons that I learned while an active member of my club continue to influence my life The friendships formed during that time are some of my most treasured and I will forever be thankful for the support that I continue to receive from my fellow Rotarians However most importantly my time as a Rotarian has given me the skills and passion for service and community that has made me a better leader person husband and father history this is epic narrative storytelling at its finest      Courage to Surrender George S. Steffey, 2016-02-15 Courage to Surrender is an engaging story of hope that will captivate anyone interested in finding a compassionate community of Jesus's disciples. It is a story of how nine American teenagers from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, came to discover how to be the church, not the church of twentieth-century America but a hopeful future resurrected church for the twenty-first century. It is a church fellowship where people love one another with the extravagant love and grace of God, one in which a love for those in need flows out of their relationships with one another. It is a story of transformation, not only of individuals but of a diverse fellowship of believers. In it, you will find pain and healing, questions and answers, struggles, masks removed, radically change lives, some humor, and a lot of hope. It is written for young adults seeking meaning and purpose in life and for mature Christians frustrated with the fragmentation of the church and its preoccupation with rules, programs, buildings, and control. Nearly every chapter has its surprises. On first reading, it is simply a fascinating tale, but on another level, it addresses the disparities in the world and the search for significance within us all. Readers will be encouraged and challenged.

Blueprint for Building Community John Perry, 2010 Blueprint for Building Community is a rare look at the career of a city manager. This career portrait is set in two Illinois communities, Park Forest and Woodridge, communities which hold high aspirations for their residents. City managers partnering with elected leaders and citizens in these communities have worked to fulfill those aspirations. This book highlights the values and relationships that must be cultivated by the city manager to successfully build community. Although the focus is on the role of the city manager, other key participants such as elected officials, citizens, and employees can gain from the insights. Community building requires connecting the key groups in the community to the mission and sacred things dear to residents. Harnessing the energy of all the players produces tremendous results. For the many people who worked to build Park Forest and Woodridge and so many communities across this country, this book is a tribute to their efforts. COVER      Long, Tall Texans: Coltrain & Long, Tall Texans: Marshall Diana Palmer, 2018-04-16 New York Times bestselling author Diana Palmer revisits two classic tales of unexpected passion. Long Tall Texans, Coltrain, originally published in 1995, as Coltrain's Proposal. Doctors Jebediah Coltrain and Louise Blakely have been arch enemies for years. Ever since Louise's father had cruelly betrayed Jeb years ago, he's plotted his revenge, and he'll stop at absolutely nothing to get it. His plan: To convince lovely Louise to marry him, then to bring her and her family down for good. But the good doctor never counted on falling for his fake fiancée and breaking his own rules of engagement. Long Tall Texans, Marshall, originally published in 1998, as The Princess Bride. Kingman Marshall knows he's too old, too jaded, and too burdened with secrets for fresh, youthful Tiffany Blair. And Tiffany's not the kind of girl for just one night of passion; she's an innocent made for walking down the aisle to her groom. But Kingman is the only one Tiffany wants, and she'll stop at nothing to make him hers forever.
