Report[s] on the Results of the Mineral Survey of Southern Nigeria Imperial Institute (Great Britain),1911      Nigerian History, Politics and Affairs Adiele Eberechukwu Afigbo,2005 These essays attempt to focus the light of history on Nigeria Nigerians and their contemporary condition The root idea here is that fundamental to all historical works that when the mind interacts with the past the result is something like a torchlight whose beam is focused on the present thus enabling us to achieve a better understanding of the problems which face us Afigbo has probed deep into Nigeria s pastbringing out all the facets all the elements and all the issues that are necessary to improve the present      Annual Report on Nigeria Great Britain. Colonial Office,1949      A Sourcebook of HIV/AIDS Prevention Programs Alexandria Valerio,Michael Beasley,Donald A. P. Bundy,2008 Abstract This Sourcebook aims to support efforts by countries to strengthen the role of the education sector in the prevention of HIV AIDS It was developed in response to numerous requests for a simple forum to help countries share their practical experiences of designing and implementing programs that are targeted at school age children The Sourcebook seeks to fulfill this role by providing concise summaries of programs using a standard format that highlights the main elements of the programs and makes it easier to compare the programs with each other A Sourcebook of HIV AIDS Prevention Programs 2nd Edition documents 13 education based HIV AIDS prevention programs targeting children and youth from 7 sub Saharan African countries It is sponsored by

UNAIDS UNICEF UNESCO UNFPA DFID USAID Ireland Aid and the World Bank The Sourcebook represents the work of many contributors and was developed by the Partnership for Child Development with the World Bank Untold Histories of Nigerian Women Tayo Agunbiade,2023-12-07 This book is a curation of insightful and engaging narrations aimed at freeing women from the margins of Nigeria s history It chronicles their protest movements against colonial administrations including monster petitions on taxation and food price controls It details a string of remarkable political landmarks which highlight women s historical credentials as nationalists as well as their voice in early male dominated legislative institutions It also narrates more contemporary episodes in women s resistance against oil exploitation environmental pollution and anger over the mass abduction of school girls This timely preservation of the voice and agency of Nigerian women from a wide variety of colonial and contemporary documents will benefit readers interested in African history and gender and women s studies

Intellectual Property and Law in Nigeria C. Nwabachili,2016-04-30 The legal protection of intellectual property in Nigeria is the focus of this book Its nine chapters dwell on copyright trademarks patents industrial designs and the legal protection of intellectual property in Nigeria An overview is given of the law relating to the subject in order to facilitate a solid grounding in the law as a starting point from which various political theoretical or other perspectives can be developed There is substantial reliance on the relevant Nigerian statutes on copyright trademarks patents and industrial designs as contained in the Laws of the Federation 2004 and also on the reported cases decided in this area by Nigerian courts over the years References are also given to the case and statutory laws in some other jurisdictions especially where Nigerian legislative enactments need a reform It is straightforward and comprehensive intended as a basis both for undergraduates and for postgraduate courses in addition to being useful to teachers lawyers judges magistrates and accessible for general readership Foreign Enterprise in Nigeria Paul O. Proehl,2012-06-01 This study of a newly independent and developing country describes the environment the foreign investor may expect to find if he ventures into Nigeria The emphasis is on the legal system but the author also examines certain nonlegal factors such as the 1962-68 Development Plan education and manpower which all condition the investment climate of the country Originally published 1965 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value The Colonial Office and Nigeria, 1898-1914 John M. Carland,1985-04-01 A study in the relationship between one department of the Colonial Office and the colonies in which it had responsibility Proceedings Agricultural Society of Trinidad and Tobago,1929 The Nigerian Cocoa Industry and the International Economy in the 1930s Olisa Muojama,2018-07-27 Periodic cycles and waves are characteristics of global capitalism The contraction in world trade during the Great Depression of the 1930s stands out as the strongest adverse shock to international trade in modern history This book uses the Nigerian cocoa industry s encounter with the world economy of the 1930s to knit together a gamut of themes ranging from the social formations of production to the forces of demand and supply and price fluctuations and stabilization as well as the protest movements against monopoly capitalism It examines the Nigerian cocoa industry within the international economy of the inter war years in order to demonstrate how the dynamics of the international capitalism of the 1930s such as the Great Depression and the fluctuations in commodity prices affected the cocoa industry and the peasant cocoa producers in colonial Nigeria It provides an interesting case study of the impact of international capitalism on the periphery economy as well as the consequences of economic dependence on the external market This book will be an indispensable resource for historians economists anthropologists and the general reader with an interest in the areas of international political economy depression economics world commodity trade and agriculture and its related industries

The British Colonial Territories in 1950 British Information Services,1951

The Birth of Nigeria's University Kenneth Mellanby,2025-09-30 First published in 1958 The Birth of Nigeria s University tells the story of how Dr Kenneth Mellanby the Principal Designate acquired five square miles of unsurveyed bush and created there what is now accepted as one of the leading universities in Nigeria Although Dr Mellanby modestly disclaims much of the credit for this achievement it is realised in university circles that it was his energy and enthusiasm that was largely responsible for the rapid growth of University College Ibadan and for the high academic status it has now achieved The book is the story of a successful struggle against many difficulties including bad planning by experts in Britain and Africa red tape indifference and procrastination The author shows how it was impossible to divorce higher education from politics He pungently but good humouredly criticises many well known figures in the educational and colonial worlds Race relations play a large part in this story and the author paints a picture of black and white races working together as equals This is an important historical reference work for scholars and researchers of African history African education and African studies

Nigeria and World War II Chima J. Korieh,2020-03-26 A sophisticated history of colonial interactions in Nigeria during World War II drawing on hitherto unexplored archival resources
