Drizzle With Details

A good paragraph needs supporting sentences that tell more about the main idea of the topic sentence. Supporting sentences and sentences called detail sentences. Every detail sentence in a paragraph must relate to the main idea in the following paragraph. The one supporting sentence that does not relate to the main idea has been underlined.

My first day of school yesterday was a total disaster. Not only was I late because I was late, but I also forgot my glue. When during learning practice, I noticed the half empty glue tank in my bag. Unfortunately, I forgot to fill my glue tank. To make matters even worse, I forgot to fill my glue tank. Instead my sister, I was definitely not all to a very good end.

Underline the topic sentence. Circle the main idea. Put some supporting sentences that do not relate to the main idea.

Yesterday the science class went on a field trip to the ocean. That will be fun. We've been to the ocean before. Our teacher wanted us to observe the tide and around the pond. The tide is low. We saw many kinds of plants and animals in each pond. We saw many kinds of plants and animals in each pond. We saw many kinds of plants and animals in each pond. We saw many kinds of plants and animals in each pond.
