

been killed at Braddock's defeat, but this is impossible, as Braddock was defeated about the time of such a child's birth. A certain William Shall enlisted for the Revolutionary War from this region of Virginia, and he may have lost his life in that service.

- iii John Scholl, b. : m. Morris: issue, two children: not traced. This son is not mentioned as an heir of William in his suit in 1798, nor are his children mentioned.
- iv Peter Scholl, b. September 15, 1754: m. Mary Boone.
- v Joseph Scholl, b. 1755-6: m. Lavinia Boone.
- vi Abraham Scholl, b. December 15, 1765, in Rowan Co., N. C.: m. (1) Rebecca (or Nellie) Humble, who died leaving issue, ten children: m. (2) at Winchester, Ky., December 15, 1803, Tabitha Noe, by whom he had ten children: removed about 1816 (possibly not till 1824) to Pike Co., Ill., and died there in 1851. He served in the Revolution and applied for a pension, which was refused him because he had not served for at least six months, as required by the Pension Law of 1832.
- vii Isaac Scholl, b. : m. Charity : was residing in Williamson Co., Tenn., in 1824: not further traced.
- viii Aaron Scholl, b. : named by Mrs. Hazel A. Spraker as one of William's sons, on what authority not known, but he was not named by Edward Boone Scholl in his Letter to Dr. Draper, nor was he named as heir in Enos Hardin's suit.
- ix Sarah Scholl, b. : m. Samuel Shortridge: she is named by Edward Boone Scholl, but not by the suit of Enos Hardin.
- x Elizabeth Scholl, b. : m. Arnold Custer.
- xi Rachel Scholl, b. : m. David Denton.

The Letter of Edward Boone Scholl, dated at Griggsville (Pike Co., Ill), February 25, 1861, to Dr. Draper, the historian, says that his father "Peter Scholl was born September 15, 1754, dyed September 11, 1821, being 67 years lacking 4 days: he was born in Virginia." Then he ventures the following as a "biography of the family." "First: Jacob Scholl was born in Germany: came to America in an early day: married an intergan (sic) Scotch Lady: they had but one child which they called William: he was born and raised in Virginia: he was married and lived until they had ten children, to-wit:" and then followed the list as above, with the exception of Aaron, whose existence is questionable.

Edward Boone Scholl, the writer of the letter, was a grandson of William, and it is very doubtful, whether he had sufficient knowledge of his greatgrandfather to be sure of his statements. I can make nothing out of his word intergan unless it is an illiterate rendering of some Dutch term like "ondergon," equivalent to the German "heruntergegangen," meaning "in reduced circumstances," but certainly Sarah Colyer of the New Jersey family, who was the mother of William Scholl born 1731, could play the rôle of Scotch Lady satisfactorily, and she had but one son, whom they called William. But if so, then the greatgrandfather's name was not Jacob, but Peter.

We have documentary evidence in abundance to show that William Scholl was living in Virginia in association with an older Peter Scholl, who might very well be his father.

Peter Scholl appeared early in the Shenandoah Valley. Capt. Peter Scholl was on the muster roll of Augusta county in 1742: was made Justice in Augusta county in December, 1745: commissioned Coroner April 14, 1746 and served a number of years: commissioned Captain of a company of infantry, August 19, and Colonel, August 21, 1752: lived on "Reed Creek" in 1752: served as appraiser and surety on various occasions: in 1764, February 23, he received as a bequest by Will from Rev. Philip Charles Vangemund his son George Frederick Peter, evidently as a ward, and was there called Col. Peter Scholl: finally on May 25, 1765, as Peter Scholl, in behalf of the Presbyterian Church, he became as co-trustee with Michael Neise a grantee of land "for the Glory of God and the Preaching of his Precious
