

Thank You Volunteers

Thank you for the things you do
And the challenges you help us through.

You always support us
Without making a fuss.

You help us skate and tie our laces
And that puts a smile on our faces.

You put together the Craft Night raffle
Without a hassle.

For the Art Show, you hang children's art
With a caring heart.

You raise money with all your might
For things like Scientist and Stem Night.

When the scientist comes you help us learn
And make sure everybody gets a turn.

Thank you for the things you do
And the challenges you help us through.

The Road of Sorrow Christine Hale, 2021-03-24 The Road of Sorrow By Christine Hale Do genetics or circumstances shape the course of a person's life? Are mental disorders or addictions in the realm of a person's choice? The Road of Sorrow is based on the true story of one man's journey with mental illness, drug addiction, and great losses. Rusty lived his life on the edge, rejecting those who loved him the most. His personal losses exceeded those of an average person. With each loss, Rusty turned inward, changing his character and his need to feel whole and loved. Each change leads him further along in the Road of Sorrow.

At the Intersection of Disability and Drama John Michael Sefel, Amanda Slamcik Lassetter, Jill Summerville, 2021-03-16 Cripples ain't supposed to be happy, sings Anita Hollander, balancing on her single leg and grinning broadly. This moment from her multi-award-winning one-woman show Still Standing captures the essence of this theatre anthology. Hollander and nineteen other playwright-performers craftily subvert and smash stereotypes about how those within the disability community should look, think, and behave. Utilizing the often conflicting tools of Critical Disability Studies and Medical Humanities, these plays and their accompanying essays approach disability as a vast intersectional demographic which ties individuals together less by whatever impairment, difference, or non-normative condition they experience and more by their daily need to navigate a world that wasn't built for them. From race, gender, and sexuality to education, dating, and pandemics, these plays reveal there is no aspect of human life that does not in some way intersect with disability.

A Time to Risk All Clodagh Finn, 2017-10-13 Clodagh Finn has travelled throughout Europe to piece together the story of this remarkable, unknown Irish woman meeting many of those children Mary Elmes saved. Here, in a book packed with courage, heroism, adventure, and tragedy, her story is finally remembered. The children called her Miss Mary, and they remember her kindness still. She gave them food and shelter and later risked her life to help them escape the convoys bound for Auschwitz. Turning her back on a brilliant academic career, Mary Elmes ventured into a war zone to help children in the Spanish Civil War In 1939 she fled Franco's forces but continued to work with refugees in France when the Second World War broke out In 1942 when it became evident that Jews were being deported to their deaths she smuggled children to safety in the boot of her car She was arrested and imprisoned by the Gestapo but went straight back to work after her release When the war was over Mary married and settled down never speaking about what she had done Her story was forgotten In A Time to Risk All her remarkable story is finally remembered as it should be A compelling portrait of an unsung Irish heroine of two wars Madeleine Keane Literary Editor Sunday Independent Brings to light the life of Mary Elmes showing a remarkable independent and courageous woman whose compassion knew no borders Yvonne Altman O Connor Culture and Education Director Irish Jewish Museum Poetry for My Family Linda King, 2018-06-30 In our darkest hour God will never leave us alone Even when we feel lonely God sends the Holy Spirit to help us in every way There will be times in our lives when we may feel like giving up but we have a friend in Jesus who will never give up on us Sometimes we may feel so alone But we are not alone For Jesus is our light in a dark situation It may feel like God is not there but he is He is there to see you through everything
