Islam in the School Curriculum Shiraz Thobani,2010-06-10 A sociological study of the recontextualisation of Islam as school knowledge in the UK education system Citizenship Education Nader Al-Refai,Christopher Adam Bagley,2008-01-01 This important book draws together and integrates several strands in educational policy It offers a perspective on the role of Britain s increasing Muslim population and the need for Citizenship Education for all school pupils which can allow young Muslims to integrate in ways which meet their legitimate needs for expression of religious values and which fosters tolerance in both Muslim pupils and in their peers as well as responsible participation in the wider democracy The book explains clearly the meaning of education and citizenship in Islam and argues that the practice of Islam encourages its adherents both to tolerate other religions and the societies in which Islamic minorities have settled In this account there is no logic morality or theological support for violent acts against the state However increasing Islamophobia misdirected against Muslim youth in Britain has forced a reappraisal of identity This combined with increasing dissatisfaction of Muslim parents on the failure of mainstream schools to tolerate the religious aspirations of their children has led to the setting up of a number of Muslim schools in Britain Recent government actions to introduce Citizenship Education in all schools as a means of fostering tolerance and countering political apathy are evaluated in a study of five best practice Muslim schools and five similar schools serving a wider religious population Results show the general success of Citizenship Education in the Muslim schools studied and support the argument that Islamic education can support Citizenship Education in socially productive ways While focussed on Britain this book is an important comparative study of education sociology and social policy and deserves to be read by trainee teachers undergraduates and policy makers in the fields of education and social planning Report of the Patna University Committee 1913 Patna University Committee,1914 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1919 New Methodological Perspectives in Islamic Studies ,2023-05-25 This volume draws attention to and moves beyond the traditional methodological frames that have governed knowledge production in the academic study of Islam Departing from Orientalist and largely textual studies the chapters collected herein revolve around three main themes gender the political and what has come to be known as lived Islam The first involves ascertaining how to read gender and gender issues into traditional sources The second encourages an attunement to the often delicate intersection between the spheres of religion and politics The final provides a corrective to our traditional over emphasis on the interpretation of texts and a preoccupation with studying mainly male elites Taken as a whole this volume encourages a multi methodological approach to the study of Islam Contributors include Abbas Aghdassi Aaron W Hughes Eva Kepplinger Taira Amin Bet l Avc Ali Abedi Renani and Seyyed Ebrahim Sarparast Sadat Meral Durmu and Bahattin Ak it Walid Ghali Isabella Crespi and Martina Crescenti Brian Arly Jacobsen Pernille Friis Jensen Kirstine Sinclair and Niels Valdemar Vinding
