Governance and the Policing Profession

Upon completion of this unit, the student will be able to:

1. discuss the processes involved in the recruitment of police officers across Canada and why diversity in policing and the police organization is of such importance
2. understand the importance of police culture
3. explain how police officers and policing agencies are held accountable for their on-duty actions
4. recognize the vitality and applicability of 'trust' between community members and police.

Becoming a Police Officer

The text distinguishes between basic qualifications (i.e. those candidates must meet) and preferred qualifications (i.e. those that increase the candidate's competitiveness when seeking employment as a police officer).

Basic Qualifications

- a. Canadian citizenship (or, in some cases, landed immigrant status)
- b. Being physically fit
- c. High school education
- d. Personal qualities such as integrity, honesty and good judgment

Preferred Qualifications

- a. Knowledge of a second language or culture
- b. volunteer experience
- c. Post-secondary education
- d. Work/life experience

Pre-employment Education Programs

In some provinces, there are pre-employment education programs designed for students who
