

INTRODUCTORY RITES

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

RECEPTION OF THE CHILD

Priests: What names have you given your child?

Parents: The parents give the child's name.

Priests: What do you ask of God's Church for?

Parents: Baptism.

Priests: You have asked to have your child baptized. In doing so you are accepting the responsibility of raising him/her in the presence of the faith. It will be your duty to bring him/her up to keep God's commandments as Christ taught us, by loving God and our neighbors. Do you clearly understand what you are undertaking?

Parents: We do.

The priest now addresses the godparents

Priests: Are you ready to help the parents of this child as they do as Christians parents?

Godparents: We are.

Priests: Well, for Christ's sacraments welcome you with your joy. In its name I claim you for Christ and his love by the sign of baptism. From now the grace of your baptism, and from now yours and godparents to do that grace.

BLESSING

God the Father, through his Son, the Virgin Mary's child, has brought joy to all Christian mothers, as they see the hope of eternal life shine on their children. May he bless the mothers of these children. They never thank God for the gift of these children. May they be ever with them in thanksgiving for the gift he gives us. Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

God is the giver of all life, health and joy. May he bless the fathers of these children. With their wives they will be the first teachers of these children in the name of God. May they be ever the best of teachers, teaching them to be holy by what they say and do in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

By God's gift, through grace and the Holy Spirit, we are solemnly entrusted to the care of these children. May the children be ever in the hands of these parents, who are the first teachers of these children. May they be ever the best of teachers, teaching them to be holy by what they say and do in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann, 2019-06-13 Jens Zimmermann locates Bonhoeffer within the Christian humanist tradition extending back to patristic theology He begins by explaining Bonhoeffer's own use of the term humanism and Christian humanism and considering how his criticism of liberal Protestant theology prevents him from articulating his own theology rhetorically as a Christian humanism He then provides an in depth portrayal of Bonhoeffer's theological anthropology and establishes that Bonhoeffer's Christology and attendant anthropology closely resemble patristic teaching The volume also considers Bonhoeffer's mature anthropology focusing in particular on the Christian self It introduces the hermeneutic quality of Bonhoeffer's theology as a further important feature of his Christian humanism In contrast to secular and religious fundamentalisms Bonhoeffer offers a hermeneutic understanding of truth as participation in the Christ event that makes interpretation central to human knowing Having established the hermeneutical structure of his theology and his personalist configuration of reality Zimmermann outlines Bonhoeffer's ethics as Christformation Building on the hermeneutic theology and participatory ethics of the previous chapters he then shows how a major part of Bonhoeffer's life and theology namely his dedication to the Bible as God's word is also consistent with his Christian humanism
