Christianity in Northeast India Chongpongmeren Jamir, 2020-04-22 This book examines the distinctive formation of Christianity in Nagaland Northeast India since 1947 It argues that an understanding of the history of Christianity in the region can be found in its cultural milieu and the changing political social and religious environment In Nagaland almost 90 per cent of the population are Christians This book shows that segmentation as a cultural characteristic of Naga society inspired both unity and divisiveness in the Naga churches which subsequently shaped the beliefs and practices of the churches in the region Using the methodology of cultural history the author examines ecclesiastical events and suggests that the history of Christianity should be examined in the light of its interaction with its cultural context rather than as an isolated phenomenon The book demonstrates that the ethnic status which the Christian faith assumed the extent of its identification with the local culture and the scope of the mission of the Naga churches as key stakeholders in society offers a new angle on the history of Christianity in India This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of South Asian history particularly those concerned with Northeast India and Christian history historiography cultural history history of Christianity in India and faith culture interface religious studies history and South Asian Studies *Minutes of the New York Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church ...
