Orientation And Other Stories:

Orientation Daniel Orozco, 2011-05-24 Breakfast's boiled egg the overhead hum of fluorescent lights the midmorning coffee break daily routines keep the world running But when people are pushed by a coworker's taunt a face to face encounter with a woman in free fall from a bridge cracks appear revealing alienation casual cruelty madness and above all a simultaneous hunger for and fear of the unknown Daniel Orozco leads the reader through the hidden lives and moral philosophies of bridge painters men housebound by obesity office temps and warehouse workers He reveals the secret pleasures of late night supermarket trips for cookie binges exceptional data entry and an exiled dictator's occasional piss on the U S embassy A love affair blooms between two officers in the impartially worded pages of a police blotter a new employee's first day office tour includes descriptions of other workers most private thoughts and actions during an earthquake the consciousness of the entire state of California shakes free for examination Orientation introduces a writer at the height of his powers whose work surely invites us to reassess the landscape of American fiction Orientation is a Kirkus Reviews Best of 2011 Short Story Collections title Orientation: A Story Daniel Orozco, 2011-09-06 Orientation introduces a writer at the height of his powers whose work surely invites us to reassess the landscape of American fiction A new employee's first day office tour includes descriptions of other workers most private thoughts and actions Orientation is a story from Daniel Orozco's critically acclaimed collection of the same name which leads the reader through the hidden lives and moral philosophies of bridge painters men housebound by obesity office temps and warehouse workers He reveals the secret pleasures of late night supermarket trips for cookie binges exceptional data entry and an exiled dictator's occasional piss on the U S embassy A love affair blooms between two officers in the impartially worded pages of a police blotter during an earthquake the consciousness of the entire state of California shakes free for examination Values of Happiness Iza Kavedžija, Harry Walker, 2017-03-15 How people conceive of happiness reveals much about who they are and the values they hold dear Drawing on ethnographic insights from diverse field sites around the world this book offers a unique window onto the ways in which people grapple with fundamental questions about how to live and what it means to be human Developing a distinctly anthropological approach concerned less with gauging how happy people are than with how happiness figures as an idea mood and motive in everyday life the book explores how people strive to live well within challenging or even hostile circumstances The contributors explore how happiness intersects with dominant social values as well as an array of aims and aspirations that are potentially conflicting demonstrating that not every kind of happiness is seen as a worthwhile aim or evaluated in positive moral terms In tracing this link between different conceptions of happiness and their evaluations the book engages some of the most fundamental questions concerning human happiness What is it and how is it achieved Is happiness everywhere a paramount value or aim in life How does it relate to other ideas of the good What role does happiness play in orienting people's desires and life choices Taking these questions seriously the book draws together considerations of meaning values and affect while recognizing the diversity of human ends Making Meaningful Lives Iza Kavedžija, 2019-07-26 What makes for a meaningful life In the Japanese context the concept of ikigai provides a clue Translated as that which makes one's life worth living ikigai has also come to mean that which gives a person happiness In Japan where the demographic cohort of elderly citizens is growing and new modes of living and relationships are revising traditional multigenerational family structures the elderly experience of ikigai is considered a public health concern Without a relevant model for meaningful and joyful older age the increasing older population of Japan must create new cultural forms that center the ikigai that comes from old age In Making Meaningful Lives Iza Kavedžija provides a rich anthropological account of the lives and concerns of older Japanese women and men Grounded in years of ethnographic fieldwork at two community centers in Osaka Kavedžija offers an intimate narrative analysis of the existential concerns of her active independent subjects Alone and in groups the elderly residents of these communities make sense of their lives and shifting ikigai with humor conversation and storytelling They are as much providers as recipients of care challenging common images of the elderly as frail and dependent while illustrating a more complex argument maintaining independence nevertheless requires cultivating multiple dependences on others Making Meaningful Lives argues that an anthropology of the elderly is uniquely suited to examine the competing values of dependence and independence sociality and isolation intimacy and freedom that people must balance throughout all of life's stages The Formation of Campaign Agendas Holli A. Semetko, Jay G. Blumler, Michael Gurevitch, David H. Weaver, Steve Barkin, 2013-04-15 This unusual volume seeks to accomplish three related goals to assess the extent and limits of media power in election campaigns to extend the concept of media agenda setting to include the contributions of powerful news sources in the process of election agenda formation to evaluate the impact of national system variables differences in political and media systems on the balance of party and media forces in the formation of campaign agendas In the process it searches for ways of measuring the discretionary power of the media in electoral politics testing this in terms of the relative ability of journalists and politicians to shape election campaign agendas The Holy Spirit and the Church Thomas Hughson, 2019-10-28 Advancing strong scholarly discussion on the Holy Spirit and the church in the context of the ecumenical movement six theologians in five different churches offer new theological and pastoral insights into the work of the Holy Spirit in the churches of Christianity in ecumenism and in witness With The Church Towards a Common Vision World Council of Churches document serving as a common point of reference a pastoral perspective is distinctive throughout Relating theology to non theological knowledge of the contemporary cultural context as well as application to pastoral practice this book draws from and is applicable to clergy formation preaching lay discipleship church world relations social mission congregational life grass roots ecumenical cooperation and witness to Christ and the gospel by racial minorities Multicultural Children's Literature Ambika Gopalakrishnan, 2010-04-22 Preparing K 12 teachers to address today's social cultural and critical issues using multicultural children's books Written in

You Can't Google It! Phyllis Weiss Haserot,2017-11-14 Much of the learning skills and perspective people of all ages need to succeed long term in their careers is not found in data on the Internet but rather in conversations and personal relationships with the people they work with Tech tools have trained us to search the Internet for answers to everything but we can t find most of the non technical or non data based answers we seek there Learning about perspectives relationships and experiences comes best from conversations In most organizations there are three four or even five generations working together with differing expectations about how things are done and by whom People of different generations are increasingly isolated physically functionally or emotionally from each other both by communication styles and media and lack of the perspective that would help them understand why people think and act as they do You Can t Google It facilitates action to promote and foster cross generational conversation in organizations on both the parts of management and the multi generational teams that are increasingly the key to productivity profitability and sustainability You Can't Google It is a tool to help organizations and individuals remove the stress frustration and negative energy that often arises from working with people of different generations so they understand and are able to accomplish their common goals faster and profitably It is about the implications of different generations and how to move towards closing that gap At the Very Edge of the Forest Carol Fox,1993 Improving Teaching and Learning In the Core Curriculum Kate Ashcroft,Professor Kate Ashcroft,John Lee,2005-08-16 How can teachers respond creatively to the demands of the literacy and numeracy hours Can children be taught to behave like scientists How can teachers remain reflective and independent during this period of government direction Targeting Text John Barwick,1998 Series contains structured teaching units for nine most commonly studied text types Handbook of Clinical Sexuality for Mental Health Professionals Stephen B. Levine,Candace B. Risen,Stanley E. Althof,2016-01-13 The Handbook of Clinical Sexuality for Mental Health Professionals 3rd Edition builds on the authors authoritative first person voice on sexual matters of the previous editions The work reflects the field's growing sophistication about sexual disorders and their therapies The scope has been expanded to keep pace with new literature and research in the field and eight additional chapters have been added New topics include the politics of diagnosis persistent genital arousal asexuality post orgasm illness scientific findings concerning origin of orientation and partnering with the pharmaceutical industry Easily accessible the Handbook is divided into sections that touch on fundamental knowledge and skills treatment men's major sexual concerns women's major sexual concerns problems common to both genders the diversity of sexual lives and future and trending topics Written in a personal supervisory style the book will help new therapists anticipate clinical contingencies and help experienced therapists refine their thinking and teaching Quiet, Please Scott Douglas,2010-09-17 A humorist and honest look at a life in public service For most of us librarians are the quiet people behind the desk who apart from the occasional shush vanish into the background But in Quiet Please McSweeney's contributor Scott Douglas puts the quirky caretakers of our literature front and center With a keen eye for the absurd and a Keseyesque cast of characters witness the librarian who is sure Thomas Pynchon is Julia Roberts's latest flame Douglas takes us where few readers have gone before Punctuated by his own highly subjective research into library history from Andrew Carnegie's Gilded Age to today's Afghanistan Douglas gives us a surprising and sometimes hilarious look at the lives which make up the social institution that is his library This 10th Anniversary Edition includes nearly 100 pages of added content including a new forward and afterward Media Asia ,1995 Evaluative Language in Sports John Walsh,David Caldwell,Jon Jureidini,2024-05-29 Walsh Caldwell and Jureidini offer an expansive linguistic perspective on the evaluative language prevalent in the world of professional sports This book presents a close linguistic analysis of evaluative language in sport Drawing on appraisal theory and data from three distinct sporting contexts songs and chants in football stadiums television commentary and coach discourse it examines the critical role played by affectual judgemental and appreciative language In the spirit of sociolinguistics this book also considers the history and culture of the respective sporting contexts Connections are made between the evaluative language expressed by supporters commentators and coaches and the invocation of power and solidarity Evaluative Language in Sports gives insight into some of the key language practices that contribute to professional sports culture a communal and combative world of winners and losers us and them An innovative and valuable book that will appeal to students researchers and sports enthusiasts interested in sports communication and language sociolinguistics and media studies Redesigning English Sharon Goodman,David Graddol,1996 The rapid development of communications technology is transforming the manner in which people communicate across time and space In this book the authors examine the ways in which the English language has adapted to new media Weird Fiction Michael Cisco,2022-01-31 Weird Fiction A Genre Study presents a comprehensive contemporary analysis of the genre of weird fiction by identifying the concepts that influence and produce it Focusing on the sources of narrative content how the content is produced and what makes something weird Michael Cisco engages with theories from Deleuze and Guattari to explain how genres work and to understand the relationship between identity and the ordinary Cisco also uses these theories to examine the supernatural not merely as a horde of tropes but as a recognition of the infinity of experience in defiance of limiting norms The book also traces the sociopolitical implications of weird fiction studying the differentiation of major and minor literatures Through an articulated theoretical model and close textual analysis readers will learn not only what weird fiction is but how and why it is produced Bisexuality in Europe Emiel Maliepaard,Renate Baumgartner,2020-11-01 Bisexuality in Europe offers an accessible and diverse overview of research on bisexuality and bi people in Europe providing a foundation for theorising and empirical work on plurisexual orientations and identities and the experiences and realities of people who desire more than one sex or gender Counteracting the predominance of work on bisexuality based in Anglo American contexts this collection of fifteen contributions from both early career and more senior academics reflects the current state of research in Europe on bisexuality and people who desire more than one sex or gender The book is structured around three interlinked themes that resonate well with the international research frontiers of bisexual theorising bisexual citizenship intimate relationships and bisexual identities This book is the first of its kind in bringing together research from various European countries including Austria Finland Italy the Netherlands and Scandinavian countries as well as from Europe as a wider geographical region Topics include pansexual identity non monogomies asylum seekers and youth cultures This is an essential collection for students early career researchers and more senior academics in Gender Studies LGBTQI Studies and Sexuality Studies Transforming Public Leadership for the 21st Century Ricardo S. Morse,Terry F. Buss,C. Morgan Kinghorn,2014-12-18 The forces of globalization are shifting our world including the public sector away from hierarchy and command and control toward one of collaboration and networks The way public leadership is thought about and practiced must be and is being transformed This volume in the Transformational Trends in Governance Democracy series explores what the shift looks like and also offers guidance on what it should look like Specifically the book focuses on the role of career leaders those in public service who are agents of change not only in their own organizations but also in their communities and policy domains These leaders work in network settings making connections and collaborating to create public value and advance the common good Featuring the insights of an authoritative group of contributors the volume offers a mix of scholarship from philosophical discussions to conceptual models to empirical studies that taken together will help inform the transformation of public leadership that is already underway
