| Introduction           | My grandpa always tells me that people who laugh at their own mistakes will get everyone else to laugh along with them. Yesterday, I learned that he is right.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Beginning of the Story | "Stay in line," Mrs. Martin said. I knew right away that my friend Naomi wouldn't be able to cut. I looked at Naomi and frowned. Soon, the line began to move faster, and I followed along hoping that there would still be pizza.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Middle Events          | When I reached the counter, I looked at the choices. I could only see chicken and mashed potatoes, macaroni and cheese, and fish. I could hear the rumbling of my very disappointed stomach. Then, out of the corner of my eye, I saw one last piece of pepperoni pizza. I got so excited. "Pepperoni pizza," I said politely. Mrs. Martin handed me the pizza. I took the paper plate so quickly that the pizza slid off the plate. I tried to save it, but the pizza landed in the pan of hot, buttery mashed potatoes. I could feel my face turning redder and redder. All I could hear was laughter from the kids in line. As I looked at the upside-down pizza, I heard Mrs. Martin's voice. "Maria, would you like a side of mashed potatoes with your pizza?" |
| End of the Story       | I looked up and saw Naomi. She was laughing too. With a nervous smile, I said, "Of course."                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Conclusion             | Mrs. Martin smiled and scooped the mashed potato pizza on my plate. I looked around at my friends, and we all laughed again. I never really believed my grandpa until I saw my friends laughing with me. The laughing made me feel good instead of just clumsy.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
