Nā Mele o Hawai'i Nei Samuel H. Elbert, Noelani K. Mahoe, 2021-05-25 Here for the first time is a large collection of Hawaiian songs in an authoritative text with translation music not included The texts have never before been written consistently with the glottal stops indicating syllabic breaks between vowels and macrons indicating long vowels and stresses that make the words pronounceable by those unfamiliar with the Hawaiian language Many of the songs have not been translated before or have only been freely adapted rather than translated These 101 songs are all postmissionary and owe their musical origin to missionary hymns although only a few are religious None are technically chants though some are chants that have been edited and set to music They date from the mid 1850s most are from the time of the monarchy to 1968 the date of Mary Kawena Pukui's translation of Christmas songs Nearly all of these songs are sung today and are well known to Hawaiian singers Included are love songs and Christmas songs There is an exhaustive introduction which includes classification and arrangement of the songs a note on the composers and analysis of the structure symbolism and meanings of the songs and a note on the translations and on the poetic vocabulary of the Hawaiian words The Conduct of War, 1789-1961 Maj.-Gen J. F. C. Fuller, 2018-04-03 A tour de force in the way it embraces and weaves together the political economic and military factors B H Liddell Hart A work which sums up succinctly the learning of a life time New Statesman The Conduct of War 1789 1961 which was originally published in 1961 is a study of the way in which political and economic changes since the French Revolution have altered both the techniques and the aims of war The author begins by studying the limited wars that were possible in the age of absolute rulers and the destructive impact of revolutionary and democratic government on this state of affairs Not only did the new armies of the Napoleonic age grow immensely in size and military power the aims for which the war was fought began to change Now it is no longer a question of forcing the enemy government to change its policy in specific ways the purpose is the destruction of that government and the absolute surrender of its people Such a concept of war the author contends is a disastrous return to barbarism and in this book he considers his study in the light of post war events with Communist countries The Library of John Quinn John Quinn, 1923 Hell Night Don Pendleton, 2008-02-01 Blood Brothers The deadliest most organized threat ever to homeland security is situated in America's own backyard A violent militant arm of a neo Nazi group has forged an unholy alliance with Palestinian terrorists to bring about a mutual goal They want to generate panic chaos and bloodshed on America's streets With limited intelligence available and even less time Mack Bolan works down a hit list of strikes planned by both groups at home and abroad The attacks are intended to destabilize America's military legal and government institutions and light the fuse for the final act of terror against the heart of U S political power The Executioner's urgent directive comes straight from the President do anything to stop this and do it now The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record, 1894 The Lives and Legends of Buffalo Bill Don
