America's New Vaccine Wars Mark C. Navin, Katie Attwell, 2023 This book traces the history politics and ethics of mandatory childhood vaccination policy in America with close attention to recent legislative changes in California California was the first US state to ban unvaccinated children from school in response to parents refusing vaccines The new policy kick started immunization rates but also ignited polarizing debates about whether government should restrict people's liberty to promote public health Other US states and other countries are watching California carefully should they follow in its footsteps Using original interviews with politicians activists technical experts and civil society organization representatives Mark C Navin and Katie Attwell unpack the causes and consequences of cracking down on vaccine refusal in contemporary America

Bodies of Evidence Nan Alamilla Boyd, Horacio N. Roque Ramirez, 2012-02-06 Bodies of Evidence The Practice of Queer Oral History is the first book to provide serious scholarly insight into the methodological practices that shape lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer oral histories Each of the fourteen chapters pairs an oral history excerpt with an original essay in which the oral historian addresses his or her methods and practices

Race Mixing Suzanne W. Jones, 2006-02-15 In the southern United States there remains a deep need among both black and white writers to examine the topic of race relations whether they grew up during segregation or belong to the younger generation that graduated from integrated schools In Race Mixing Suzanne Jones offers insightful and provocative readings of contemporary novels the work of a wide range of writers black and white established and emerging Their stories explore the possibilities of cross racial friendships examine the repressed history of interracial love reimagine the Civil Rights era through children's eyes herald the reemergence of the racially mixed character investigate acts of racial violence and interrogate both rural and urban racial dynamics Employing a dynamic model of the relationship between text and context Jones shows how more than thirty relevant writers including Madison Smartt Bell Larry Brown Bebe Moore Campbell Thulani Davis Ellen Douglas Ernest Gaines Josephine Humphreys Randall Kenan Reynolds Price Alice Walker and Tom Wolfe illuminate the complexities of the color line and the problems in defining racial identity today While an earlier generation of black and white southern writers challenged the mythic unity of southern communities in order to lay bare racial divisions Jones finds in the novels of contemporary writers a challenge to the mythic sameness within racial communities and a broader definition of community and identity Closely reading these stories about race in America Race Mixing ultimately points to new ways of thinking about race relations We need these fictions Jones writes to help us imagine our way out of the social structures and mind sets that mythologize the past fragment individuals prejudice people and divide communities
