Orange County A Personal History:

Orange County Gustavo Arellano, 2008-09-16 Bestselling author of Ask a Mexican Gustavo Arellano returns with Orange County a seamlessly woven history of California's Orange County with Gustavo's personal narrative of growing up within its neighborhoods. The story began in 1918 when Gustavo Arellano's great grandfather and grandfather arrived in the United States only to be met with flying potatoes. They ran and hid and then went to work in Orange County's citrus groves where eventually thousands of fellow Mexican villagers joined them. Gustavo was born sixty years later the son of a tomato canner who dropped out of school in the ninth grade and an illegal immigrant who snuck into this country in the trunk of a Chevy. Meanwhile Orange County changed radically from a bucolic paradise of orange groves to the land where good Republicans go to die, American Christianity blossoms and way too many bad television shows are green lit. Part personal narrative, part cultural history, Orange County is the outrageous and true story of the man behind the wildly popular and controversial column Ask a Mexican and the locale that spawned him. It is a tale of growing up in an immigrant enclave in a crime-ridden neighborhood but also in a promised land, a place that has nourished America's soul and Gustavo's family both in this country and back in Mexico for a century. Nationally bestselling author, syndicated columnist, and the spiciest voice of the Mexican American community, Gustavo Arellano delivers the hilarious and poignant follow-up to Ask a Mexican, his critically acclaimed debut. Orange County not only weaves Gustavo's family story with the history of Orange County and the modern Mexican immigrant experience but also offers sharp, caliente insights into a wide range of political, cultural, and social issues.

Fernandez, Angelina F. Veyna, 2013-04-08 Images of Baseball: Mexican American Baseball in Orange County celebrates the once vibrant culture of baseball and softball teams from Placentia, Anaheim, Santa Ana, Westminster, San Juan Capistrano, and nearby towns. Baseball allowed men and women to showcase their athletic and leadership skills, engaged family members, and enabled community members to develop social and political networks. Players from the barrios and colonias of La Brica, Campo Colorado, La Jolla, Logan, Cypress Street, El Modena, and La Colonia Independencia, among others, affirmed their Mexican and American identities through their sport. Such legendary teams as the Placentia Merchants, the Juveniles of La Habra, the Lionettes de Orange, the Toreros of Westminster, and the Road Kings of Colonia 17th made weekends memorable. Players and their families helped create the economic backbone and wealth evident in Orange County today. This book sheds light on powerful images and stories of the Mexican American community.
