Entrepreneurship & Management Manjunath V.S., 2010-09 Management Stephen P. Robbins, Mary K. Coulter, 2002 For courses in Principles of Management or

Introduction to Management Robbins and Coulter's best selling text demonstrates the real world applications of management concepts and makes management come alive by bringing real managers and students together. As it successfully integrates the various functions of management the book establishes a dialogue with managers from a variety of fields. Students and professors alike will enjoy the chapter opening A Managers Dilemma vignettes which introduce students to real situations related to chapter concepts faced by real managers and the chapter ending Real Managers Respond to Opening Dilemma discussions that enable students to explore successful resolutions using concepts they learned in each chapter.

Organizational Behaviour P. G. Aquinas, 2006 Structure of the Book The structure is logical and easy to use. The book begins with an introductory section Part I which describes and illustrates the Foundations of Organizational Behaviour. The book next discusses in Part II Individual Processes and Behaviour. It then moves in Part III to examine the interactions among individuals in Group Behaviour. Part IV discusses The Organization System and finally in Part V the book presents Organizational Dynamics. Numerous up to date examples. Because many students have limited exposure to real organizations the book contains recent examples from a broad spectrum of organizations to illustrate the major concepts and to help students apply the knowledge. Some Distinctive Pedagogical Features Organizational Behaviour offers a number of distinctive time tested and interesting features for students as well as new and innovative features. These features should facilitate the students acquisition and retention of the material. v Learning objectives focus student attention on upcoming chapter content and show what happens to the manager or organization. v Cases at the end of the chapter provide students an opportunity to apply their knowledge in making managerial decisions and recommendations. v Numerous review and discussion questions follow each chapter. These questions are designed to enhance student learning and interest. South African Human Resource Management Ben Swanepoel, Barney Erasmus, Heinz Schenk, 2008 Book Strategising designing and planning as preparatory HRM work Sourcing work talent Facing the countrys people empowerment challenge Meeting the reward and care challenge Handling labour and employee relations challenges Championing change and transformation Managing HRM related information including HRM and sustainability reporting Based on most recent theoretical developments the emphasis is on the practical applications.
