The Bosasa Billions James-Brent Styan,Paul Vecchiatto,2019-09-01 The Bosasa corruption scandal cost South Africa billions of rands while the politicians involved were bought for as little as braai packs and booze Best selling author James Brent Styan and co writer Paul Vecchiatto unpack the sordid story of how one company exploited the greed of corrupt politicians and bureaucrats to establish an extensive tender network stretching right to the top of the ANC government

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich,Adri Sauerman,2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country s apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country s people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Policing Major Events James F. Albrecht,Martha Christine Dow,Darryl Plecas,Dilip K. Das,2014-11-20 Whenever a major event requires police intervention questions are raised about the nature of the police response Could the police have prevented the conflict been better prepared reacted more quickly Could they have acted more forcefully or brought the altercation under control more effectively Based upon real case studies of events from all over the world this volume explores the complex set of factors comprising the policing of major events Topics covered include Police procedures in Serbia in response to sporting events and violence The 2010 World Cup in South Africa as a model of best practice in governance structures along with the region s struggles in routine policing initiatives Security operations at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Canada and the Summer Olympic and Paralympic Games in London in 2012 Community involvement to curb terrorist insurgency in North Eastern Nigeria Governmental response to Hurricane Katrina in Louisiana and Texas Revisions made to NYPD protocols following the September 11 attacks Policing strategies for major events on Aboriginal and tribal lands across Canada Other topics include the police protestor relationship and low profile versus high profile policing strategies in crowd control the growing strategy of private security in working with public police forces and enhancing public safety in post conflict regions The concepts presented in Policing Major Events Perspectives from Around the World will enable police departments to improve their readiness for policing major events across a diverse set of events and socio political contexts This book is a co publication with the International Police Executive Symposium Strategic Plan for the South African Police Service, 2004 - 2007 South African Police Service, 2004 Policing and the Politics of Order-Making Peter Albrecht, Helene Maria Kyed, 2014-10-30 This anthology explores the political nature of making order through policing activities in densely populated spaces across Africa Asia and Latin America Based on ethnographic research the chapters analyze this complex with respect to marginalized young men in Haiti community policing members and national politicians in Swaziland as well as other individual and collective actors engaged in policing and politics in Indonesia Swaziland Ghana South Africa Mexico Bolivia Haiti and Sierra Leone What these contexts have in common is a plurality of order making practices Not one institution monopolizes the means of violence or a de facto sovereign position to do so A number of interests are played out simultaneously entailing re negotiations over the very definition of what order is How and by whom a particular order is enforced is contested at times violently so and is therefore inherently political In the existing literature on weak states legal pluralism and policing in the Global South it is seldom made explicit that making order is a route to power and positions of political decision making It is this gap in the literature that this anthology fills as it analyses the politics at stake in processes of order making Measuring Police Integrity Across the World Sanja Kutnjak Ivković, M.R. Haberfeld, 2015-06-10 This book brings together research on police integrity on regions worldwide The results for each country indicate whether police officers know the official rules how seriously they view police misconduct what they think the appropriate and expected discipline for misconduct should be and how willing they are to report it Police misconduct refers to everything from corruption and use excessive force to perjury falsification of evidence and failure to react Police Integrity and police misconduct are topics of great concern worldwide Police integrity is envisioned as the inclination to resist temptations to abuse the rights and privileges of police occupation Using their extensive experience studying police integrity in the United States the editors have created an applicable framework for measuring police integrity in other countries The results of their research are brought together in this timely volume including contributions from both established democracies and countries in transition which each present unique challenges for improving police integrity Each chapter follows the same format and contains a theoretical analysis of the relevant legal historical political social and economic conditions in the country followed by the analyses of empirical results and policy recommendations In the last chapter editors Kutnjak Ivković and Haberfeld take a comparative look across the countries by engaging in the in depth comparative analysis This work will be of interest to researchers and policy makers studying policing both in the United States and internationally presenting a theoretical framework that can be applied to other regions for further research The Global Practice of Forensic Science Douglas H. Ubelaker, 2015-02-16 The Global Practice of Forensic Science presents histories issues patterns and diversity in the applications of international forensic science Written by 64 experienced and internationally recognized forensic scientists the volume documents the practice of forensic science in 28 countries from Africa the Americas Asia Australia and Europe Each country s chapter explores factors of political history academic linkages the influence of individual cases facility development types of cases examined integration within forensic science recruitment training funding certification accreditation quality control technology disaster preparedness legal issues research and future directions Aimed at all scholars interested in international forensic science the volume provides detail on the diverse fields within forensic science and their applications around the world Police Management Beyond 2000, 2001 In the field of police management there is a great need for material that is specific to south Africa and that covers the new and challenging issues found in the SAPS management training programmers

Police, Picket-Lines and Fatalities D. Baker, 2014-11-07 Police Picket lines and Fatalities explores public protests and their management by the police focusing on the fatalities of strikers at the hands of police and outlining practices towards preventing such tragedies Uniquely examining the only three worker fatalities in Australian industrial history due to police use of deadly force this book analyses the frenzied policing involvement that led to the deaths the lack of accountability of police leadership and individual actions government and press partisanship and the deficiencies in criminal justice administration Baker ultimately questions were the police merely performing their duty by enforcing the law or were they agents complicit in reckless violence and collusion With analysis of the recent police shooting of 34 platinum miners at Marikana South Africa in 2012 Baker looks at the lessons of these case studies both past and contemporary to provide specific applications for developing best practice of police and union peace keeping protocols during industrial protests and the wider issues pertinent to public order policing of demonstrations in general Exploring Contemporary Police Challenges Sanja Kutnjak Ivković, Jon Maskály, Christopher M. Donner, Irena Cajner Mraović, Dilip K. Das, 2022-12-30 Policing in the 21st century is becoming increasingly complicated as economic political social and legal circumstances continue to compel police organizations to evolve To illustrate the complexity of policing in the 21st century and cover themes common to police organizations around the world Exploring Contemporary Police Challenges A Global Perspective is organized into six sections which cover the key policing challenges across the globe Based on US President Barack Obama s 2015 Task Force s organization into six broad pillars this volume contains contributions from policing experts focusing on Building Trust and Legitimacy Providing Policy and Oversight Utilizing Technology and Social Media Developing Community Policing and Crime Reduction Providing Police Training and Education and Facilitating Officer Wellness and Safety Scholarly analyses and discussions of these issues in 16 countries on 6 continents offer a global perspective on policing in the 21st century This volume simultaneously enhances the scope of policing scholarship and demonstrates that no country can sidestep the need to adjust to these rapid and profound changes
