horrendous evil even the most pious believer may question not only life's worth but also God's power and goodness A distinguished philosopher and a practicing minister Marilyn McCord Adams has written a highly original work on a fundamental dilemma of Christian thought how to reconcile faith in God with the evils that afflict human beings Adams argues that much of the discussion in analytic philosophy of religion over the last forty years has offered too narrow an understanding of the problem The ground rules accepted for the discussion have usually led philosophers to avert their gaze from the worst horrendous evils and their devastating impact on human lives They have agreed to debate the issue on the basis of religion neutral values and have focused on morals an approach that Adams claims is inadequate for formulating and solving the problem of horrendous evils She emphasizes instead the fruitfulness of other evaluative categories such as purity

Maximus the Confessor and Evolutionary Biology Andrew P. Jackson, 2024-11-04 This book brings Maximus the Confessor's logoi doctrine into dialogue with modern day evolutionary biology It explores the extent to which the logoi as described by Maximus exhibit features that are concordant with evolution before going on to consider more discordant aspects that cannot be ignored The author addresses the curious resonance between the logoi and evolution in a systematic way through a close reading of primary textual material allied with a deep understanding of both the classical Darwinian and extended evolutionary syntheses The study joins with other Maximian interpreters in attesting to the incarnational and theophanic nature of the logoi but seeks to extend this distinctively Eastern Christo cosmology into the problematic territory
