Building an Award-winning Guitar Program Bill Swick, 2022 Building an Award-Winning Guitar Program is a practical guide to assist secondary and post-secondary music educators with the tasks involved in establishing a successful music program. With the rising interest in guitar, Mariachi, rock band, handbells, bluegrass, music technology, and so on, more and more music educators are being asked to teach innovative music classes. Author Bill Swick has crafted this book to help these educators build such innovative music programs from the ground floor based on his years of experience as a music educator specialized in guitar. The book will assist music educators with classroom management, scheduling, structure, organization, fund-raising, festivals, travel, and other subjects related to teaching guitar in the classroom, but its principles are broadly relevant to any and all music educators hoping to create a unique program that stands out within their school district and state, attracting students, parents, educators, and administrators alike.

Parenting Musically Lisa Koops, 2020 Parents use music in family life to accomplish practical tasks, make relational connections, and guide their children's musical development. Parenting Musically portrays the musicking of eight diverse Cleveland area families in home, school, and community settings. Themes from interviews focused on the families' hopes and dreams for their children musically, as well as the families' perceptions of media messages regarding parents and music, serve to deepen the documentation of how families use and perceive music in their daily lives. Family musical interactions are analyzed using the concepts of musical parenting actions to support a child's musical development and parenting musically using music to accomplish extra musical parenting goals, arguing the importance of recognizing and valuing both modes. An additional construct, practical relational musicking, adds to the detailed analysis of family musical engagement. Practical musicking refers to musicking for a practical purpose, such as learning a scale or passing the time in a car. Relational musicking is musicking that deepens relationships with self, siblings, parents, or community members, such as a grandmother singing to her grandchildren via Facetime as a way to feel connected Families who embraced both practical and relational musicking expressed satisfaction in long term musical involvement Weaving together themes of conscious and intuitive parenting the rewards and struggles of musical practice and the role of mutuality in community musicking the discussion draws on research in music education psychology family studies and sociology This book serves to highlight the multi faceted nature of families engagement in music the author urges music education practitioners and administrators to consider this diversity when approaching curricular decisions Written in a style accessible to laypersons this book will interest a wide range of music educators as well as families community members and scholars and practitioners in family studies psychology and sociology
