(POORLY WRITTEN VERSION)

Hanley Farm Equipment
213 Lima Avenue
Findlay, OH 45840
(419) 724-6153

June 12, 201X

Mr. Robert G. Conway
CR347
Arcadia, OH 44804

Dear Mr. Conway:

We are pleased with your interest in the Global Star global positioning system. Our Global Star global positioning system is revolutionizing the farming industry! Our global positioning system can save users enough money to pay it off quickly with increased profits. This is why we are happy to grant you credit to purchase the equipment you expressed interest in.

Our field representative, Tom Holman, will call you soon to get you on his installation schedule. Following this initial meeting, contact Tom any time you have questions.

Thanks for giving us your business.

Cordially,

Sharon Tyler
Accounts Manager

It is badly written because in the opening paragraph, Account Manager tells unnecessary thing that makes the letter become longer. In the body paragraph, the Account Manager do not tell further information how to contact the field representative, Tom Holman. As a result, Mr. Conway cannot contact Tom if he have questions to ask to Tom. In the closing paragraph, she use "Cordially" instead of "Sincerely". Cordially sounds a little bit cold while Sincerely sounds friendly and suitable to use in business letter.

How to improve:

The Account Manager should not tell unnecessary thing that makes the letter become longer. In the body paragraph, the Account Manager should tell further information how to contact the field representative, Tom Holman. So that, . Mr. Conway can contact Tom if he have questions to ask to Tom. In the closing paragraph, she should use Sincerely which sounds friendly and suitable to use in business letter instead of Cordially.
