Food, Sex, Wine and Cigars : A Memoir Lisa Stalvey, 2015-07-02 My memoir spans the first twelve years of my life as a professional chef I was living in hell from September 1980 until 1993 facing many unforeseen challenges in every aspect of my life I planned on making this a cookbook twenty two years ago Then one day in 2011 it came to me that it needed to be a memoir so I just sat down and wrote While writing this book I found myself craving to feel hungry again and with that came misery The old habits of anorexia truly never leave They linger around waiting for the chance to pounce again I think that both my parents being artists of sorts gave me an interesting view of life We were totally allowed our freedom and they gave us their trust As I was being rushed to the hospital staring at three of my severed fingers floating in ice water I couldn't believe what just happened At age twenty four I was pretty thin and working as a line cook among Hollywood's elite I was about to get married but it all came to a screeching halt in 1980 when I severed three of my fingers in an industrial Cuisinart in the kitchen where I worked I describe my journey through the most difficult time of my life suffering from anorexia and living with a disability How could my life continue after losing three of my precious fingers and on my right hand no less Miraculously I pulled myself out of anorexia by finally seeing my body as it really was I began to slowly heal though it took almost thirty one more years I read self help books recited affirmations and began to seriously search for the missing piece of my heart This is my account of being a woman in a male dominated industry complete with a complicated relationship with food and a man resulting in a long self destructive streak I have been cooking for thirty eight years professionally including an apprenticeship in 1980 with Wolfgang Puck ultimately becoming his head chef at Spago Sunset I can't wait to read anything that she writes Marc Vetri Philadelphia restaurateur named one of the Top Ten Chefs in America A Jewish
