

Term 1 comments: _____ is a co-operative student who works well with other classmates. He has been listening to Charlie and the Chocolate Factory (the text is a read aloud). Throughout the unit, he participated by asking and answering questions about key details, settings, and major events. _____ is proud of the progress he is making with learning the Fry sight words. We are exposing _____ to a variety of reading strategies; he is working in our Storytown series and using leveled readers. _____ hurries thru assignments and does not do his personal best. We are working on slowing down and proofreading work before turning it in. He understands that the two digits of a two-digit number represent amounts of tens and ones. He can compare two two-digit numbers based on meanings of the tens and ones digits, and record the results of comparisons with the symbols $>$, $=$, and $<$. He can count to 120, starting at any number less than 120 and given a two-digit number, he can mentally find 10 more or 10 less than the number.

Term 2 comments: _____ arrives to school with a smile, with reminders he unpacks, makes his lunch choice, and begins his morning work. He likes math and can determine the value of a group of like coins up to \$1.00. He can measure using non-standard units and tell time to the hour and half hour. _____ was successful with geometry (attributes of 2D and 3D shapes), and fractions ($\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$). _____ has improved his handwriting and is leaving spaces between words. With reminders, he uses capital letters and punctuation correctly. Practicing the first grade Fry sight word lists at home on a daily basis would help _____ recall frequently read words. Knowing the Fry words would enhance _____'s self-confidence. Rereading familiar stories also builds self-confidence. He enjoyed the hands on activities during our science unit on light and shadows and was attentive as we read biographies of historical figures during social studies.

Term 3 comments: _____ can use a variety of strategies to add and subtract 0-20. He is making an effort to make his handwriting legible. _____ is adding details to written pieces and rereading to see if his writing makes sense. He successfully completed sorting activities during science and social studies (living/nonliving, wants/needs, and goods/services). With guidance and assistance, he researched an animal and made a Google slide. _____ is very proud of the progress he is making in reading as he increases his sight word vocabulary.
