Run Son Run Part :

Real Women Run Sandra Faulkner, 2018-01-17 Real Women Run is an innovative feminist ethnography that consists of a series of linked essays and presentations about women who run at the intersections of queer feminist and running identities. Faulkner uses feminist grounded theory, poetic inquiry, and qualitative content analysis to examine women's embodied stories of running, how they run, how running fits into the context of their lives and relationships, how they enact or challenge cultural scripts of women's activities and normative running bodies, and what running means for their lives and identities. During a two and a half year ethnography with women who run, Faulkner engaged in an intersectional qualitative content analysis of websites and blogs targeted to women runners, a grounded theory poetic analysis of 41 interviews with women who run, and participant observation at road races. Real Women Run speaks to the call for a more physical feminism. This ethnography sees women's physical and mental strength developed through running as a way to embrace the contradictions between a deconstructed focus on the mind/body split and the focus on individuals' actual material bodies and their everyday interactions with their bodies and through their bodies with the world around them.

Running Cultures John Bale, 2004 Running is one of the world's most widely practiced sports and recreations, but until now it has tended to elude serious study outside of the natural sciences. John Bale brings the sport into the realm of the humanities by drawing on sources including literature, poetry, film, art, and sculpture, as well as statistics and training manuals, to highlight the tensions, ambiguities, and complexities that lie hidden beneath the commonplace notion of running. The text explores both local and personal as well as communal and global aspects of running and its practitioners. It examines the streets, tracks, and stadiums where athletes run, the races in which they compete, and the running relationships such as exist between the athlete and the coach, between runners, and between the athlete and spectator. It discusses the importance of speed and records, how running has been used to symbolise resistance and transgression, and the extent to which it can be associated with a healthy lifestyle. Running Cultures provides new ways of seeing a familiar sporting phenomenon; it will appeal to both students and researchers with an interest in running in particular, and sport and leisure cultures more generally.

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Running Bill Rodgers, Scott Douglas, 2003 Offers motivation to begin running, plus warm-up exercises and tips for building stamina, avoiding injury, and choosing the right shoes and clothing.

Running Over 40, 50, 60, 70... Bruce Tulloh, 2015-10-19 The only book written specially for over forty runners, including starting from scratch, how to train properly, how to avoid injuries, diet and lifestyle advice, graded training schedules for all standard distances.

The Problem of Jesus Mark Clark, 2021-02-23 The modern world portrays Jesus in many ways for many reasons Some are well intentioned but misguided others are aberrations still others have some but not all the essential keys In order to see and understand the real Jesus and what the Gospels say about him we have to see him in his first century context and work out from there Here is a portrait of Jesus that in some ways will affirm what traditional Christianity has always understood about him and in other ways upend it altogether Award winning author Mark Clark delves into the person and work of Jesus of Nazareth his parables and miracles his controversial challenge of discipleship and obedience his seemingly insane claim to be God and what his death and resurrection if they did happen actually mean Mark is unafraid to tackle questions such as What would first century Jews have immediately recognized about Jesus that modern Christians often miss What do the Gospels accomplish and can we trust them Is there a problem with science and Jesus miracles What are the barriers stopping people from following him And what is Christianity in light of an accurate portrayal of the object of its faith The Problem of Jesus engages with ideas from all realms of study from Malcolm Gladwell and Jordan Peterson to historians scientists and philosophers from N T Wright to C S Lewis from Star Wars to Pretty Woman all unite to form a breathtaking and accurate portrait of Jesus the man the message and the mission who forever altered the course of human history As a former atheist I would call this book philosophical dynamite The Problem of Jesus will take your thinking about Jesus and your relationship with him to whole new levels Pastor and author Ray Johnston Run for Life Roy M. Wallack,2009-02-24 A comprehensive plan for runners of every age that offers an overview of the health benefits of running and provides step by step instructions to avoid common running problems and making the most of a running workout Among the 36 Strategies, Running Away is the Top One Chia Chen,2000 Xuya Zhao runs from America to China running away from her American problems However China is full of surprises for her all kinds the secrets her family has kept over the years the unbreakable bond with her girlhood buddies the magic power of her grandmother the mystery of the jade pendants the reunions and encounters with friends sweethearts acquaintances and old enemies Now she has a chance to settle those unsettled en en yuan yuan passions and resentments from the Cultural Revolution and to make sense of her complicated lives in both China and America Thus her return home adventure turns into a journey of self rediscovery Teaching and Learning in a Community of Thinking Yoram Harpaz,2013-11-11 This book explores a new pedagogical model called The Third Model which places the encounter between the child and the curriculum at the center of educational theory and practice The Third Model is implemented in an alternative classroom called Community of Thinking Teaching and learning in a Community of Thinking is based on three stations the fertile question research and concluding performance The essence of a Community of Thinking is the formation of a group of students and teachers who grapple with a troubling question to which they do not know the answer at the outset and sometimes even at the end of their investigation The Community of Thinking framework is supported by a whole school model the Intel Lect School The model or parts of it is currently implemented in schools in Israel England Australia and New Zealand The book suggests a new pedagogical narrative based on alternative atomic pictures of learning teaching knowledge mind and the aim of education and a systematic pedagogical practice based on this narrative Fourth and Goal!
