Leisure-time Programs for Girls in Los Angeles County Metropolitan Recreation and Youth Services Council, Los Angeles, 1963 Historical Dictionary of The Salvation Army John G. Merritt, Allen Satterlee, 2017-10-06 The Salvation Army is an integral part of the Christian Church although distinctive in government and practice The Army's doctrine follows the mainstream of Christian belief and its articles of faith emphasize God's saving purposes Its objects are the advancement of the Christian religion of education the relief of poverty and other charitable objects beneficial to society or the community of mankind as a whole The Salvation Army was founded in London in 1865 by William Booth its first General and has continued growing ever since In 2015 it celebrated its 150th anniversary and today it has a presence in 127 countries This second edition of Historical Dictionary of The Salvation Army contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on its leaders personalities events facts movements and beliefs of The Salvation Army This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about The Salvation Army The Girl from 21 Wakullah Street Rev. Diane Bradshaw, 2013-05 The Girl From 21 Wakullah Street is a memoir about the life of a family of six children with a single parent mother living loving and making the best of their situation Diane and her family grew up in Roxbury Massachusetts during the 30's and 40's which was Depression and War Time Roxbury in the 30's was a poor neighborhood but a happy one There were many children to play with and people were happy with what they had We never felt poor We were just like everyone else in the neighborhood The education system was outstanding Parents made sure their children attended school and did their homework The Truant Officer was very present if anyone tried to play hooky We had a beautiful Park Washington Park and we played there every day We played jump rope on the streets and had 15 kids playing with us even some boys If anyone had a disagreement there was always someone to play with We were part of a neighborhood and felt like we belonged She and her family were very active in our church The Salvation Army Things changed in the 40's because of the Second Great Migration Many hundreds of Negroes were brought up from the south to live in Roxbury They were promised housing and jobs in the nearby factories We who were already in Roxbury fought against these newcomers They were not welcome at all in our neighborhood and yet here they were All of a sudden we were all living on a battleground Why couldn't we have welcomed the newcomers I'm sure they were not happy about coming to Yankee Land They left their whole lives behind to try to make a living for their families All we who were already in Roxbury including the negroes living there did not welcome the newcomers and because of that everything changed for the worse The Fire Guard Program United States. Bordone,2010 Mr Bordone received his MLS from the Palmer School of Library Science at Long Island University New York in 1997 He has served as a part time librarian at New Jersey s Montclair State University since 1995 a position he still holds today After working full time as the School Media Specialist at St Mary High School in Rutherford New Jersey for six years Mr Bordone served as director of the Bogota Public Library in Bogota New Jersey In December of 2003 he left Bogota to become a Reference Librarian at the Passaic Public Library in Passaic New Jersey Inspiration to write this book came from his desire to create a brief library history link to the library s webpage Besides reading James passion is computers history and animal rescue He currently lives in Guttenberg New Jersey with his mother and five cats This book documents a chronological history of a library whose roots can be traced to the Civil War period It tells the story of the library s growth from one to nine branches and back to its current status of only one branch documenting the interesting personalities who served it along the way Although the Passaic Public Library may be an ordinary library in an urban community in New Jersey it really is a microcosm of all communities in that it has witnessed an exploding growth of immigrants over the past century and has been challenged financially to provide for this growing community while at the same time it has struggled to keep up with the ever growing and ever changing trend of technology Despite these demands the Passaic Public Library has continued to fulfill its responsibility to the community and the immigrant community in particular by providing programs for both adults and children Education for Parenthood Behavior Associates,1977 Resources in Education ,1978 Social Salvage Porter Raymond Lee,1924 Encounter Anita Phillipson Robb,1982 Passionate Politics Jeff Goodwin,James M. Jasper,Francesca Polletta,2009-03-09 Emotions are back Once at the center of the study of politics emotions have receded into the shadows during the past three decades with no place in the rationalistic structural and organizational models that dominate academic political analysis With this new collection of essays Jeff Goodwin James M Jasper and Francesca Polletta reverse this trend reincorporating emotions such as anger indignation fear disgust joy and love into research on politics and social protest The tools of cultural analysis are especially useful for probing the role of emotions in politics the editors and contributors to Passionate Politics argue Moral outrage the shame of spoiled collective identities or the joy of imagining a new and better society are not automatic responses to events Rather they are related to moral institutions felt obligations and rights and information about expected effects all of which are culturally and historically variable With its look at the history of emotions in social thought examination of the internal dynamics of protest groups and exploration of the emotional dynamics that arise from interactions and conflicts among political factions and individuals Passionate Politics will lead the way toward an overdue reconsideration of the role of emotions in social movements and politics generally Contributors Rebecca Anne Allahyari Edwin Amenta Collin Barker Mabel Berezin Craig Calhoun Randall Collins Frank Dobbin Jeff Goodwin Deborah B Gould Julian McAllister Groves James M Jasper Anne Kane Theodore D Kemper Sharon Erickson Nepstad Steven Pfaff Francesca Polletta Christian Smith Arlene Stein Nancy Whittier Elisabeth Jean Wood Michael P Young The Salvation Army Year Book Theodore H.
